Keeping time, time, time

The Time

"For every season, turn, turn, turn,
there is a time, turn, turn, turn .

The Byrds

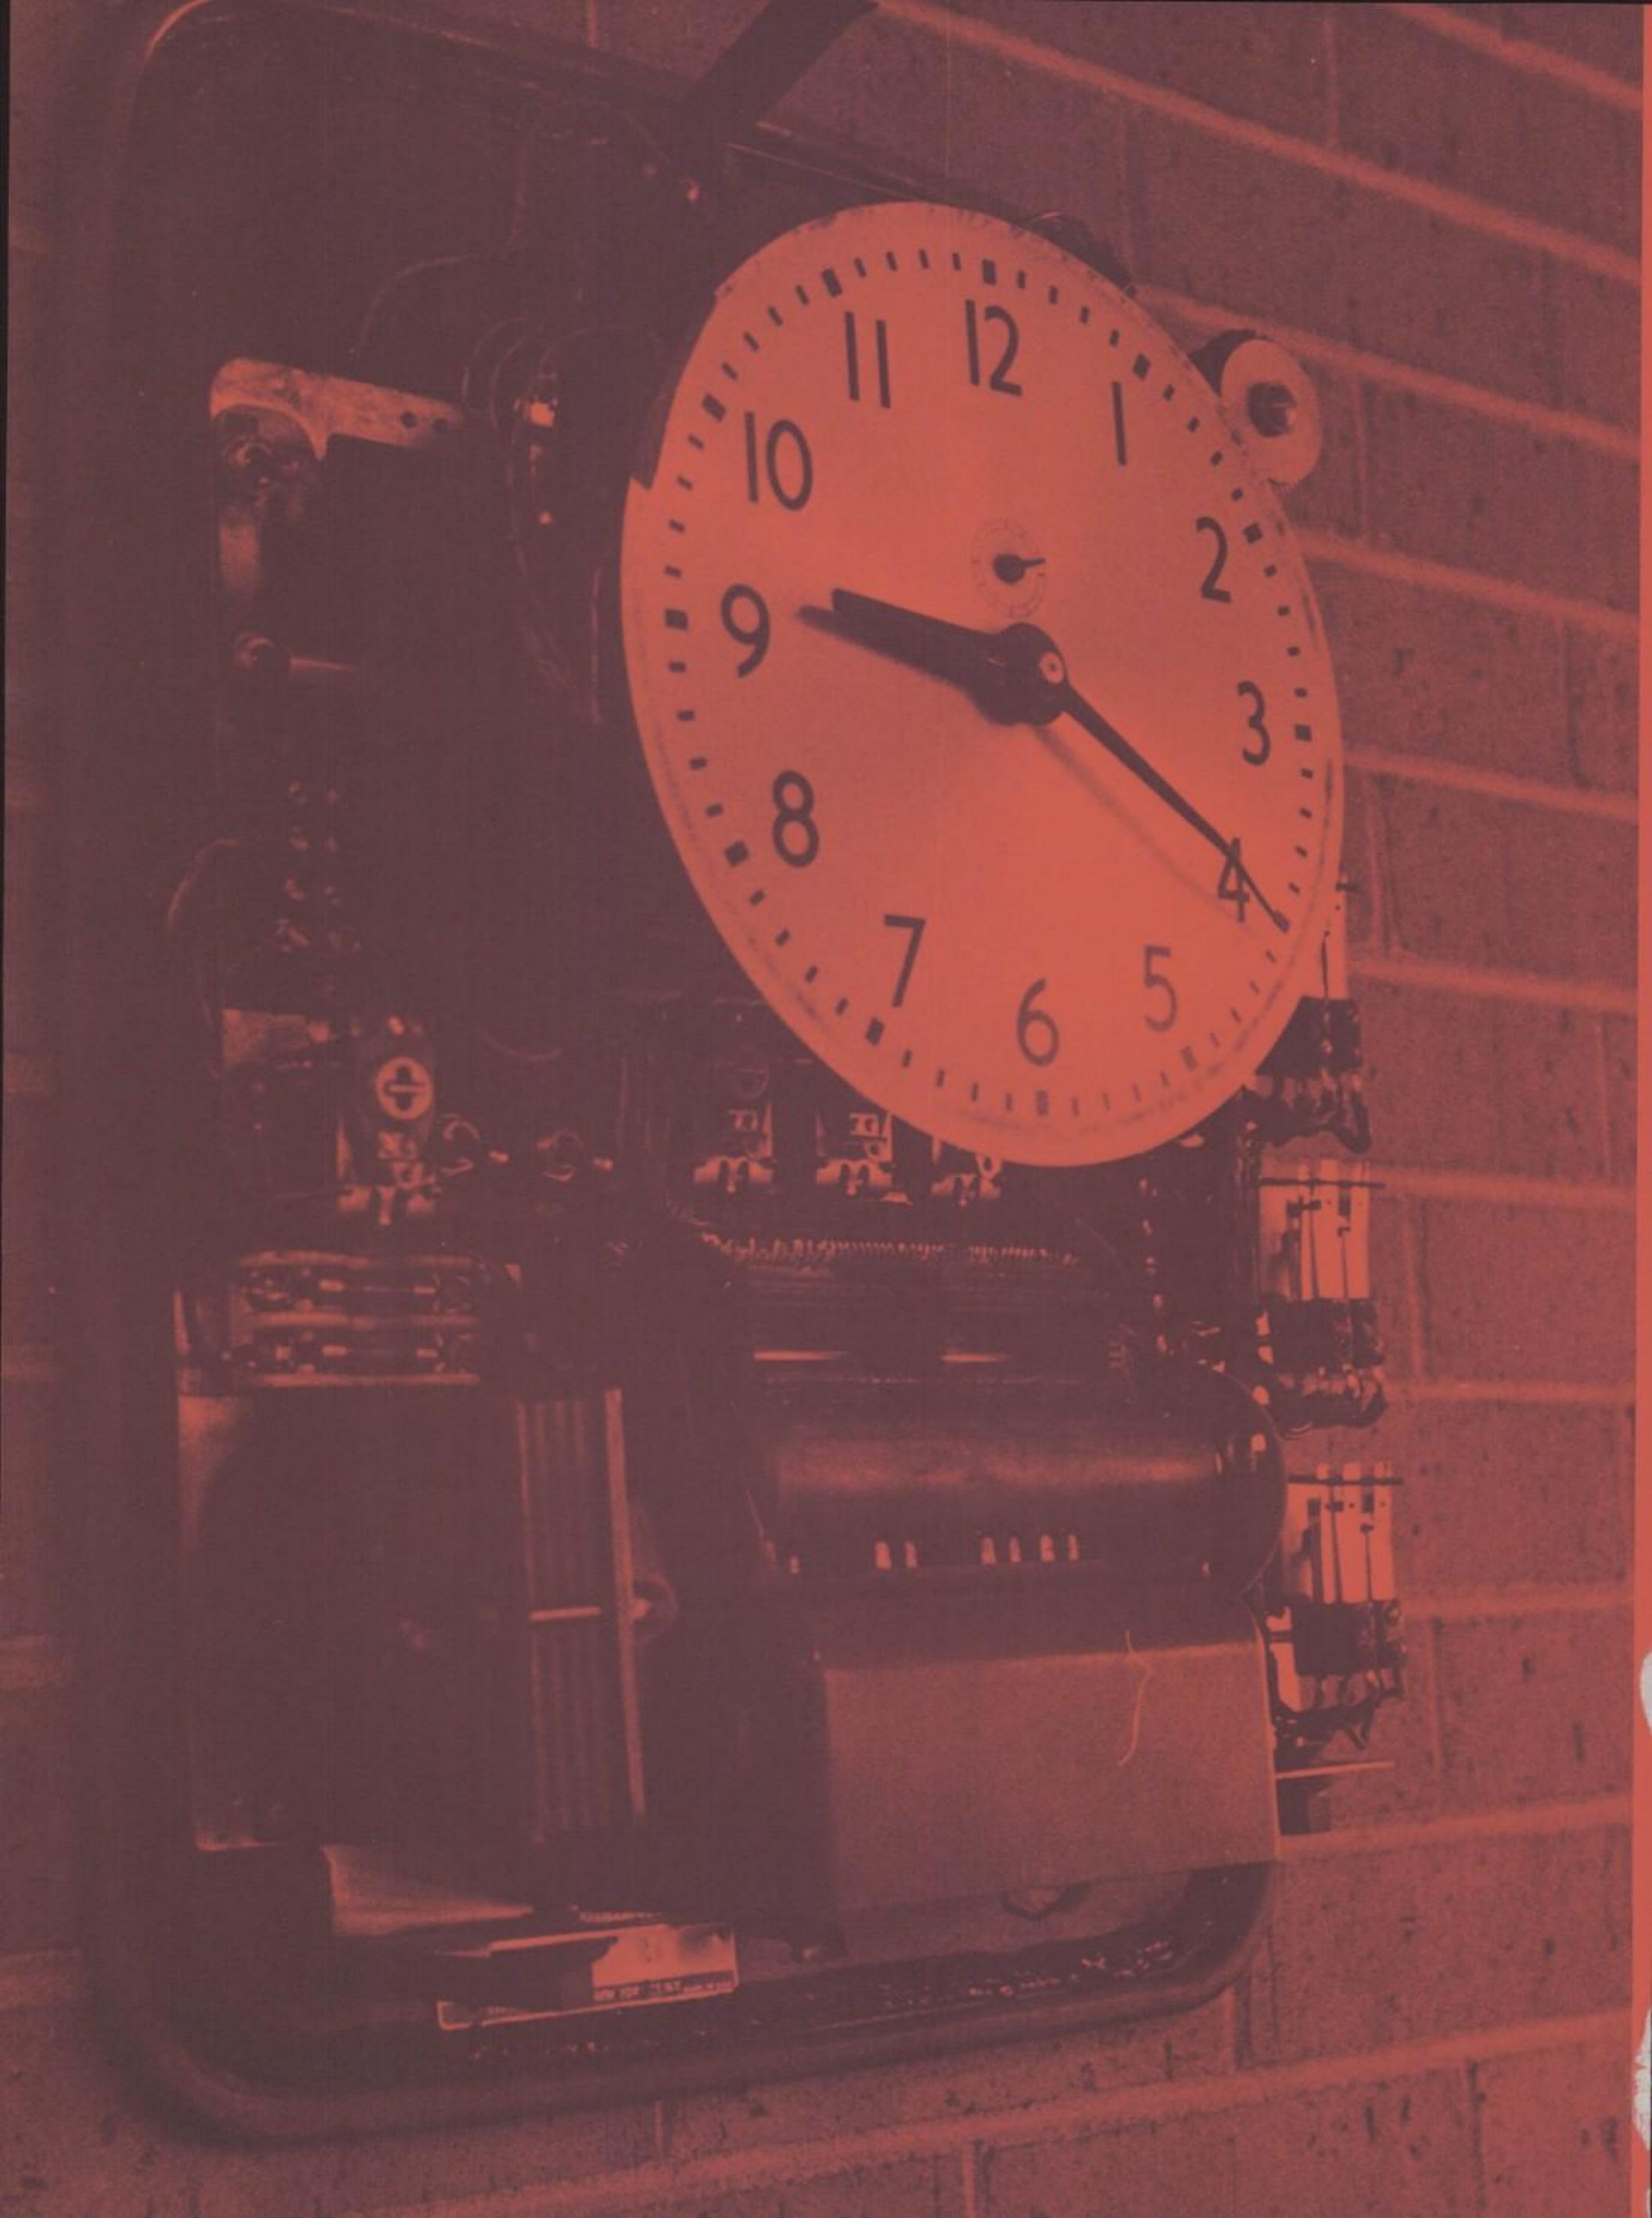

At Greer High there is a time for nearly everything — a time for athletics, a time for special events, and a time for study. These are the scheduled parts of our school life. Like a clock, the events of our school year have slowly ticked away. The football season, Homecoming, the beauty pageant, the Christmas holidays, Awards Day, Annual Day were all awaited anxiously; they came at last; and then they were gone.

Sometimes the tight schedule of school closed in on us until it seemed impossible to accomplish all that had to be done. Yet somehow the most important things were finished.

Time passes slowly when you want it to go fast, classes tick away until lunchtime, days creep by until Friday, weeks drag on until Christmas, months pass slowly until June. Then suddenly a year has slipped away and time seems to have gone fast.

We have learned, and forgotten, and then learned again. Now a new decade lies before us in which the things and ideals we have learned are finally ready to be put to use.

The following week, against Carolina, the Yellow Jackets showed better form and whipped the Trojans 35 to 0 in Homecoming. The game marked the beginning of a six-game winning streak in which Greer defeated Carolina, Chapman, Palmetto, Berea, Byrnes, and J. L. Mann.

The Chapman game was a relatively easy win as Greer came out on top 34 to 6, but the next four games proved to be very tough for Greer. Starting with Palmetto, Greer scored late in each half to defeat the conference leaders 13 to 0. Then against a tough Berea defense, playing in bad weather conditions Greer overcame the Bulldogs by a score of 19 to 0.

Always tough, this year the Byrnes Game was hard fought and the score close until the final quarter when the Yellow Jackets made three quick touchdowns to take home a 27 to 3 victory to overcome last year's loss to Byrnes.

The game against J. L. Mann was also tough and the breaks seemed to go against the Yellow Jackets. Greer eventually scored twice to win 14 to 7.

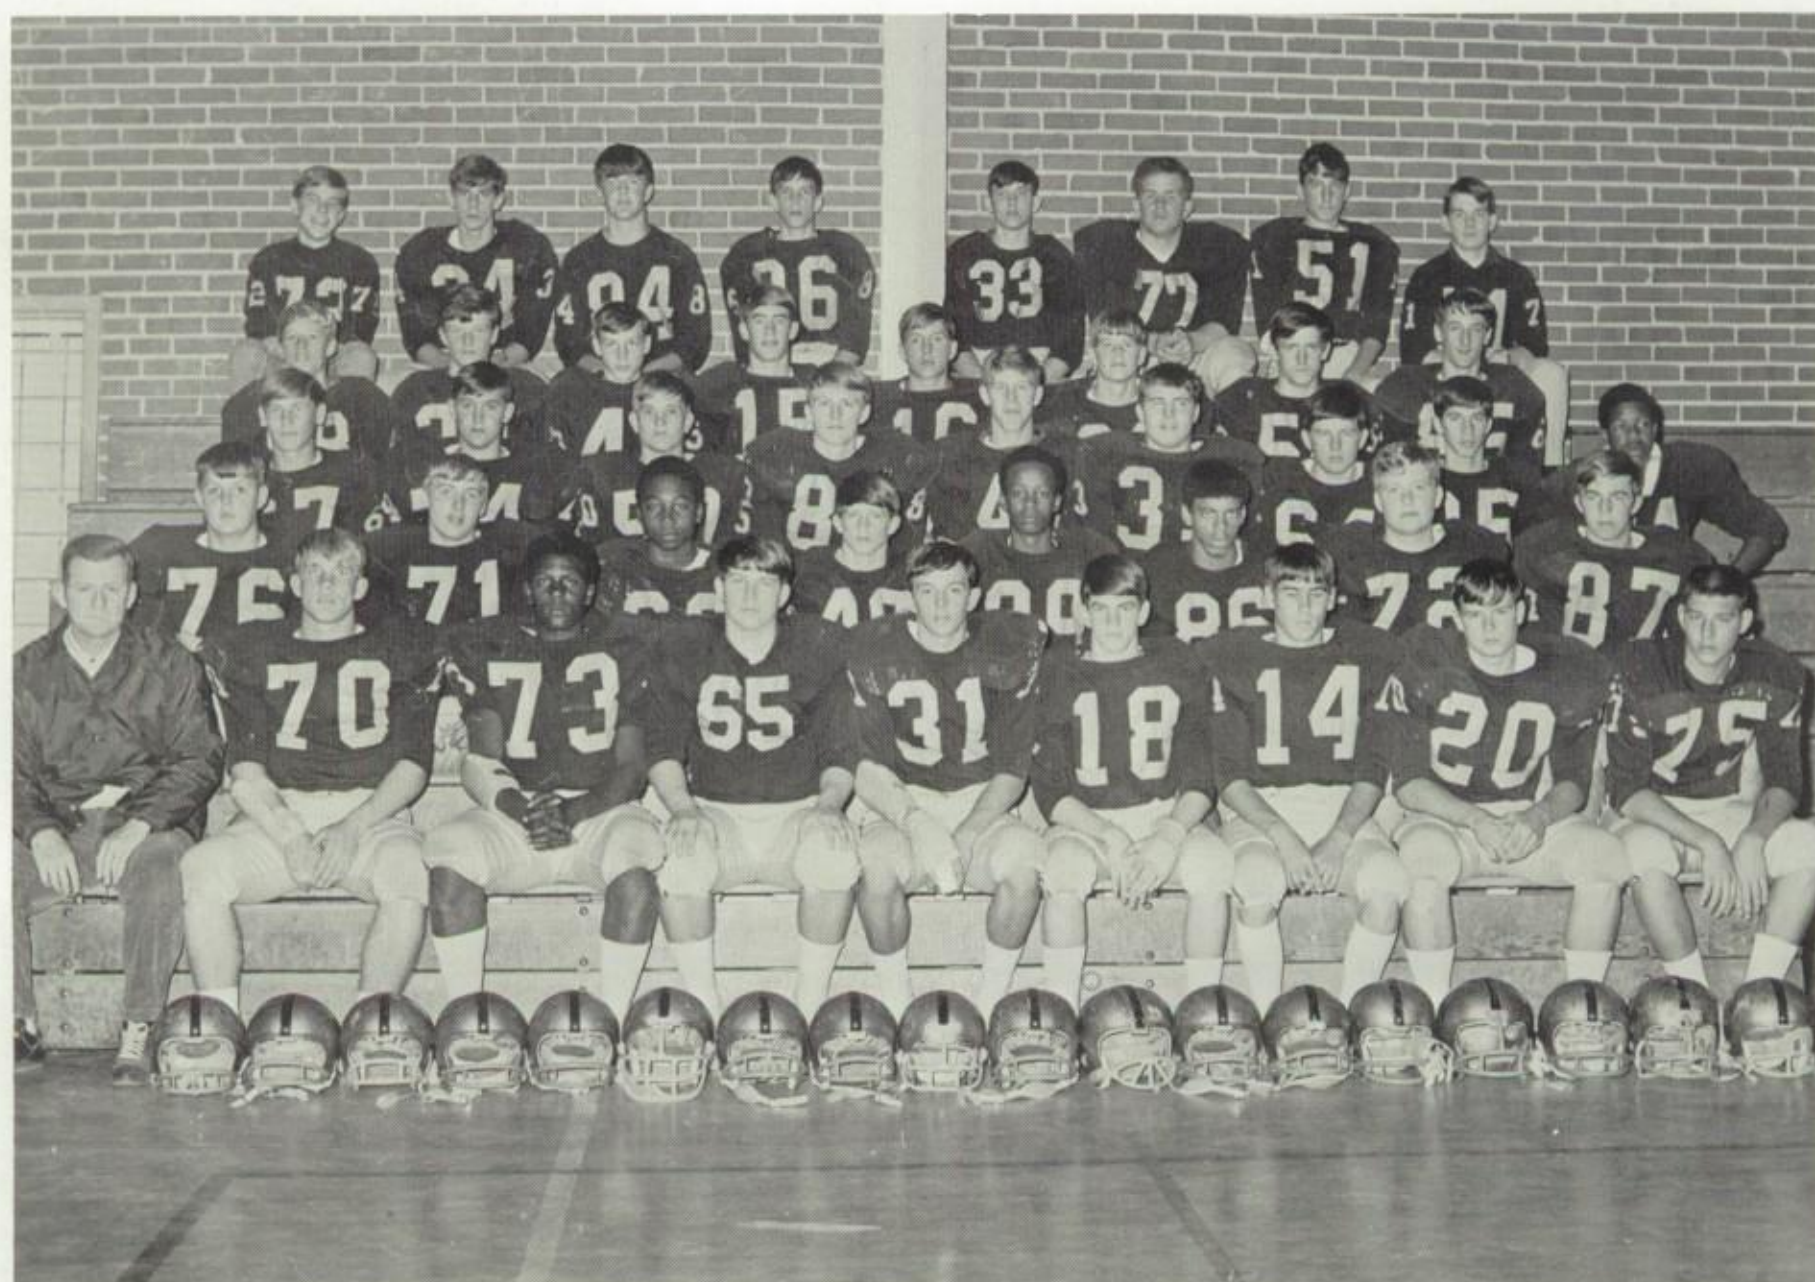

This season's final record was 9 wins and 2 losses, the best record of a Greer team in recent years.

B Team and Junior Varsity

Junior Varsity Football Coach Stanley Godfrey and B Team Coach Lewis Phillips discuss plans for the season.

The Greer High Yellow Jacket basketball team ended the regular season with a hard fought victory over rival Byrnes. This left the Jack-ets with a 9-7 conference record. Although not as good as some years, the team should be com-mended for its determination and hard work. Many of this year's vic-tories may be attributed to the shooting and playmaking of Captain Rick Dobson. However, the re-bounding and scoring of Dean Kimbrell, Bobby Kay, and Keith Hannon was necessary for continu-ous success. The strong defensive play of Danny Grambrell was also a great asset to the team, and sophomores Randy McCullen and Harold Crawford contributed significantly to the Yellow Jackets' cause.

Greer showed several bright spots during the season which in-cluded a fifth place finish in the tough Sertoma Tournament and a string of five consecutive victories midway through the season.

Although not seeded highly in the tournament, the Yellow Jackets de-feated Carolina in the opening round and fought Easley until the final horn before losing 59 to 53.

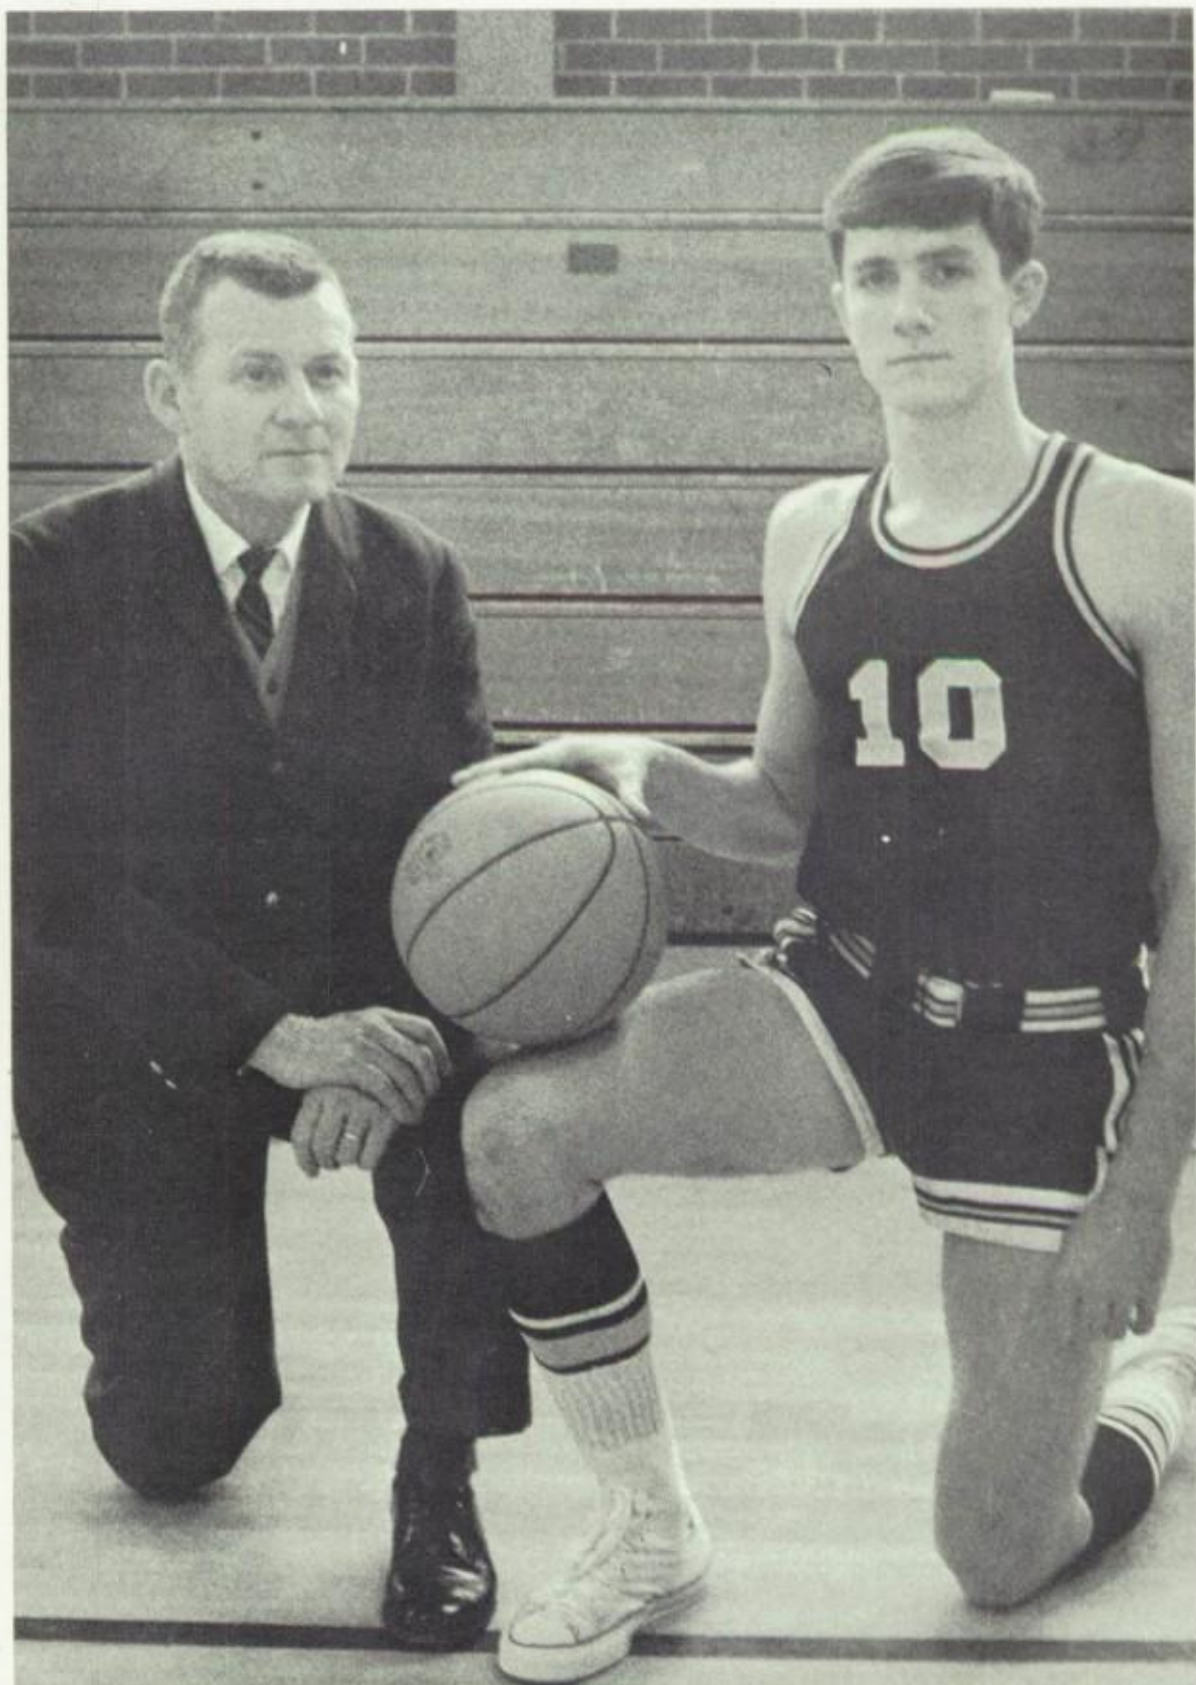

Under the leadership of Coach Lewis Phillips, the Yellow Jackets can look forward to continued suc-cess in the years to come.

Junior Varsity

Although the Greer High Junior Varsity experienced a losing season, the players displayed hustle and determination. The team got off to a slow start in the beginning. However, in the last half of the season, the Baby Jackets had a string of five consecutive victories. Coached by Stanley Godfrey, the team showed a marked improvement as the season progressed.

Several of the players could be an asset to the Varsity in future seasons.

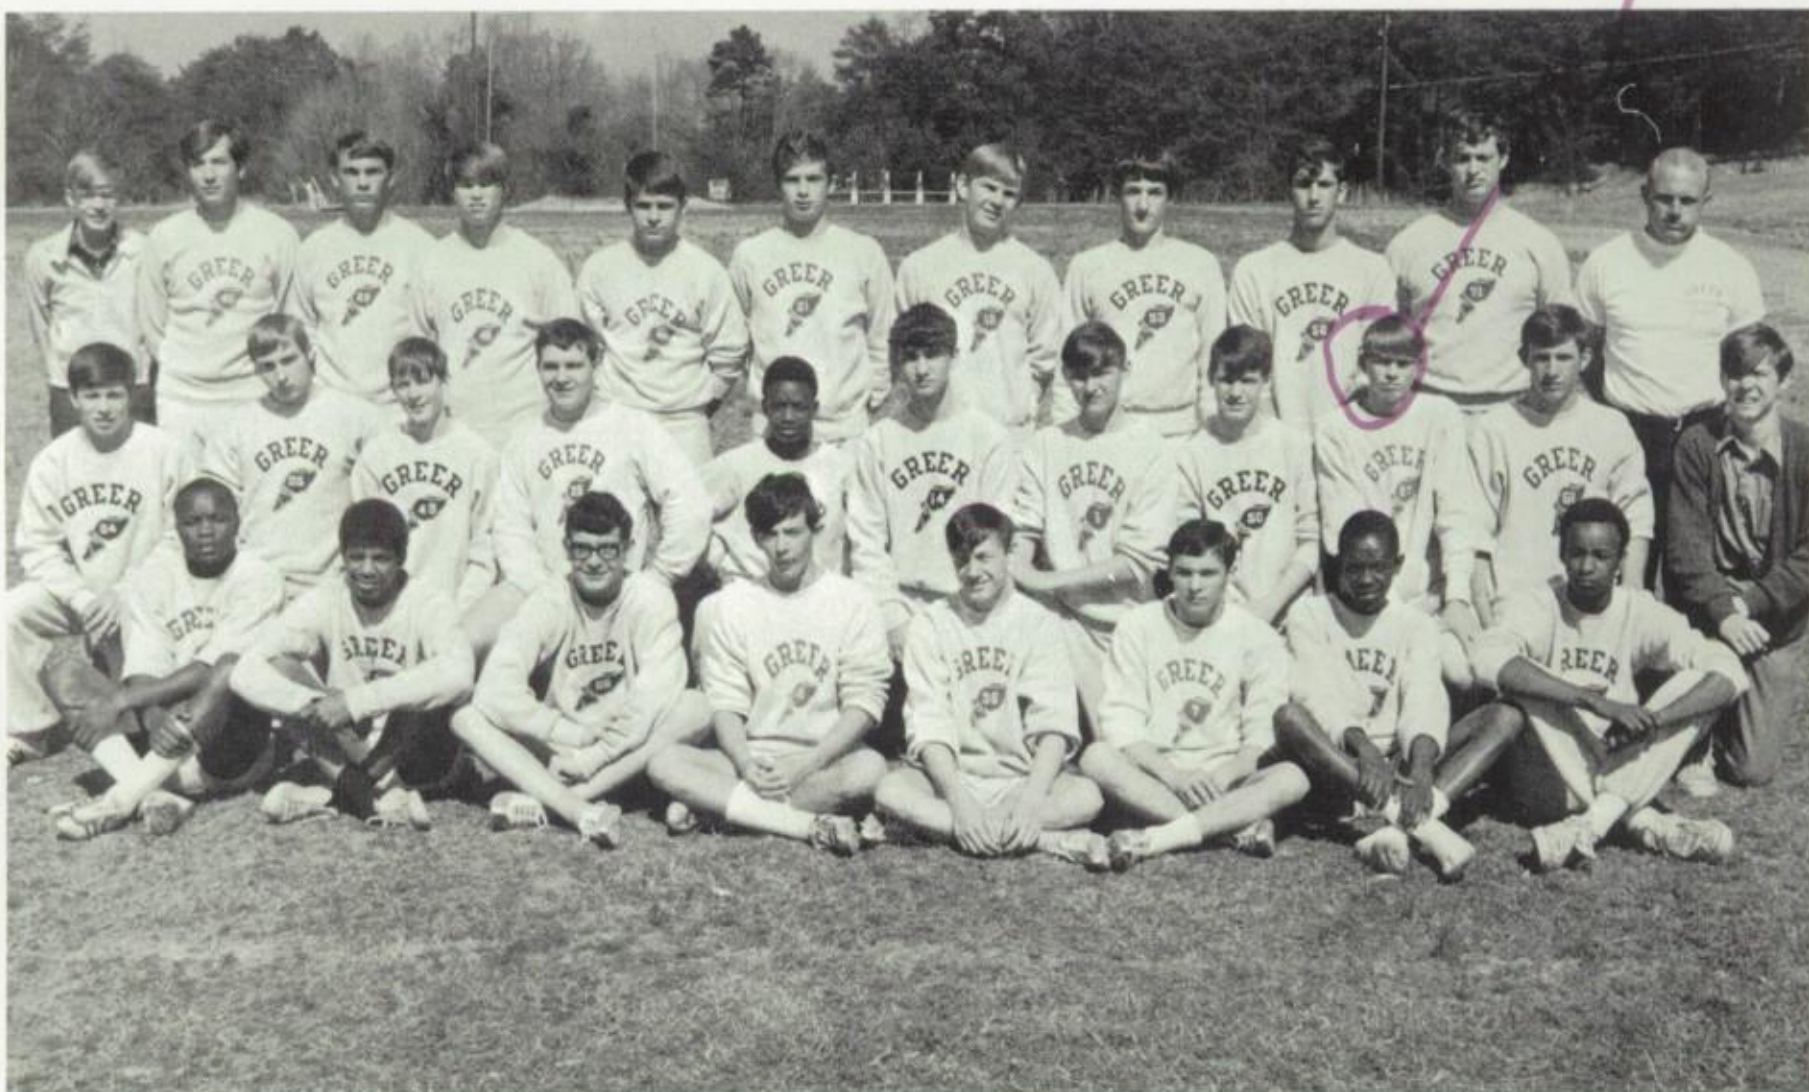

Baseball

Greer High's baseball team will attempt to defend its conference crown this year. The infield returns intact with Dean Kimbrell at first base, Alex Dobson at short stop, Ted Wilson at second base, and Terry Gillespie at third base. Tim Howell will be handling the catching again this year. Several lettermen return this year to the outfield. Steve Lynn, Paul Gillespie, Keith Hannon, and Tony Williams return from last year's squad. The biggest problem will be consistent pitching. Coach Few will be relying on two senior righthanders, Danny Gambrell and Eddie Donald to handle most of the pitching chores. With consistent hitting, the Yellow Jackets should be tough to beat again this year.

28 Mike, I enjoyed this year in biology. I hope to see you next year. Steve

Wrestling, Track, and Golf

Greer High is continually attempting to improve its athletic program. The addition of wrestling this year shows the expansion of the program. Greer's golf team is outstanding and Greer's reputation in track is well known. With the coaches at Greer these sports should continue to improve.

Greer began a wrestling team this year and did well in its first year of competition. Although building for future years, the team made a good showing in the conference tournament. Willie Dawson Jackson was named the outstanding wrestler in this event.

The golf team this year is considered to be one of the best in the conference. Returning lettermen include Topper Crim, Bobby Kay, and Barry Beeks. These three plus newcomer Mike Graveley should produce a winning season.

The track team is in the process of rebuilding again this year. However with hard work the team could make a good showing. Sonny Truesdale is strong in the field events, and Jim Talbert is expected to do well in the distance running.

The Cheerleading Squad lends spirit to the Greer High Student Body.

The 1969-70 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were Margaret An Hazle, Libby Wallace (Head Cheerleader), Nelle James, Nancy Walker, Linda Wood, and Valerie Wade.

Student Council

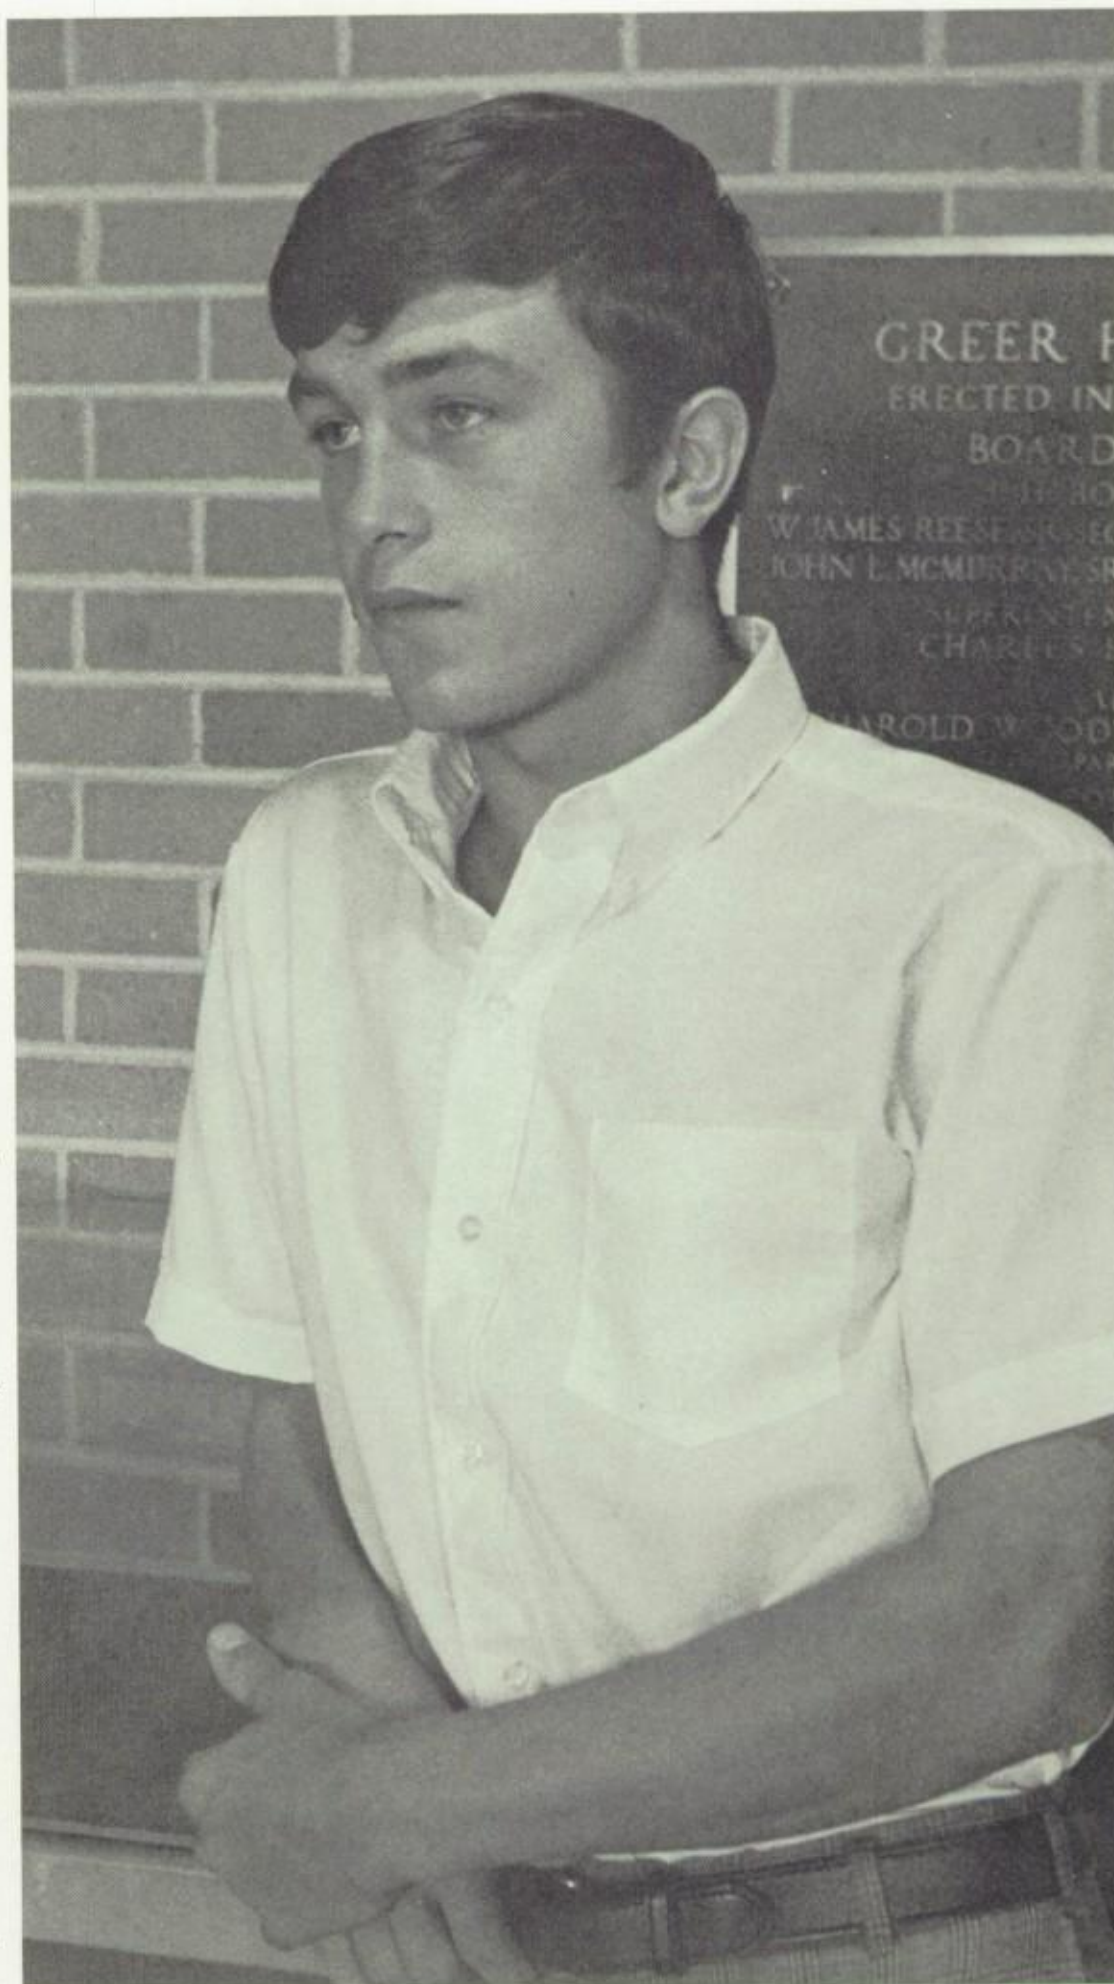

Jeannie Lister, vice president of the Student Council, was responsible for all school-wide elections.

As secretary of the Council, Paulette Garrett was in charge of the color guard each morning.

The president of the Student Council this year was Steve Lynn. Steve's main job was the morning announcements, but his responsibilities also included editing the student handbook, planning school assemblies, and organizing the student dances.

He also presided over all student council and house of representative meetings throughout the year. With the help of the other officers and council members, Steve planned the Homecoming Drop-In and the candy sale. In addition to these yearly duties the council sorted out the new I. D. cards and dealt with specific problems brought to them by the students and administration. They put up a Christmas tree in the cafeteria, gave gifts to the lunchroom and maintenance staff, and remembered the servicemen overseas who graduated from Greer High with a specially designed Christmas card.

Greer High Times

Jane Lanford and Angela Wilson, senior co-editors, were in charge of assignments given out each month. Below, Jane proofreads typed copy. At right, Angela looks over a finished paper.

The Greer High Times is a monthly publication for the benefit of the students. Each subscription cost the student $2.00 for nine issues. This year the staff was composed of approximately eighty students. Nearly 800 people subscribed to the Times this year.

Nancy Cox and Joey Adams, junior co-editors, make plans to

Chorus

Right, Gary Van Patton served as president of the Choral Music Department. Far right, Miss Cheryl Wilson, choral teacher, joined the Greer High Faculty this year. The Chorus put on concerts at Thanksgiving, at Christmas, and in May. They also participated in the Regional Choral Clinic in March. All State Chorus try-outs were held on November 8. The Teen Tones and the Southmen perform at various times during the year at Roger Huntington.

Members of the Teen Tones included Debbie Norman, Beverly Bullock, Marva Sullivan, Jane Lanford, Esther Adams, Denise Howell, Janet Reeves, Marcia Wallace, Teresa Davis, Mary Lark Morgan, and Donna Hinds.

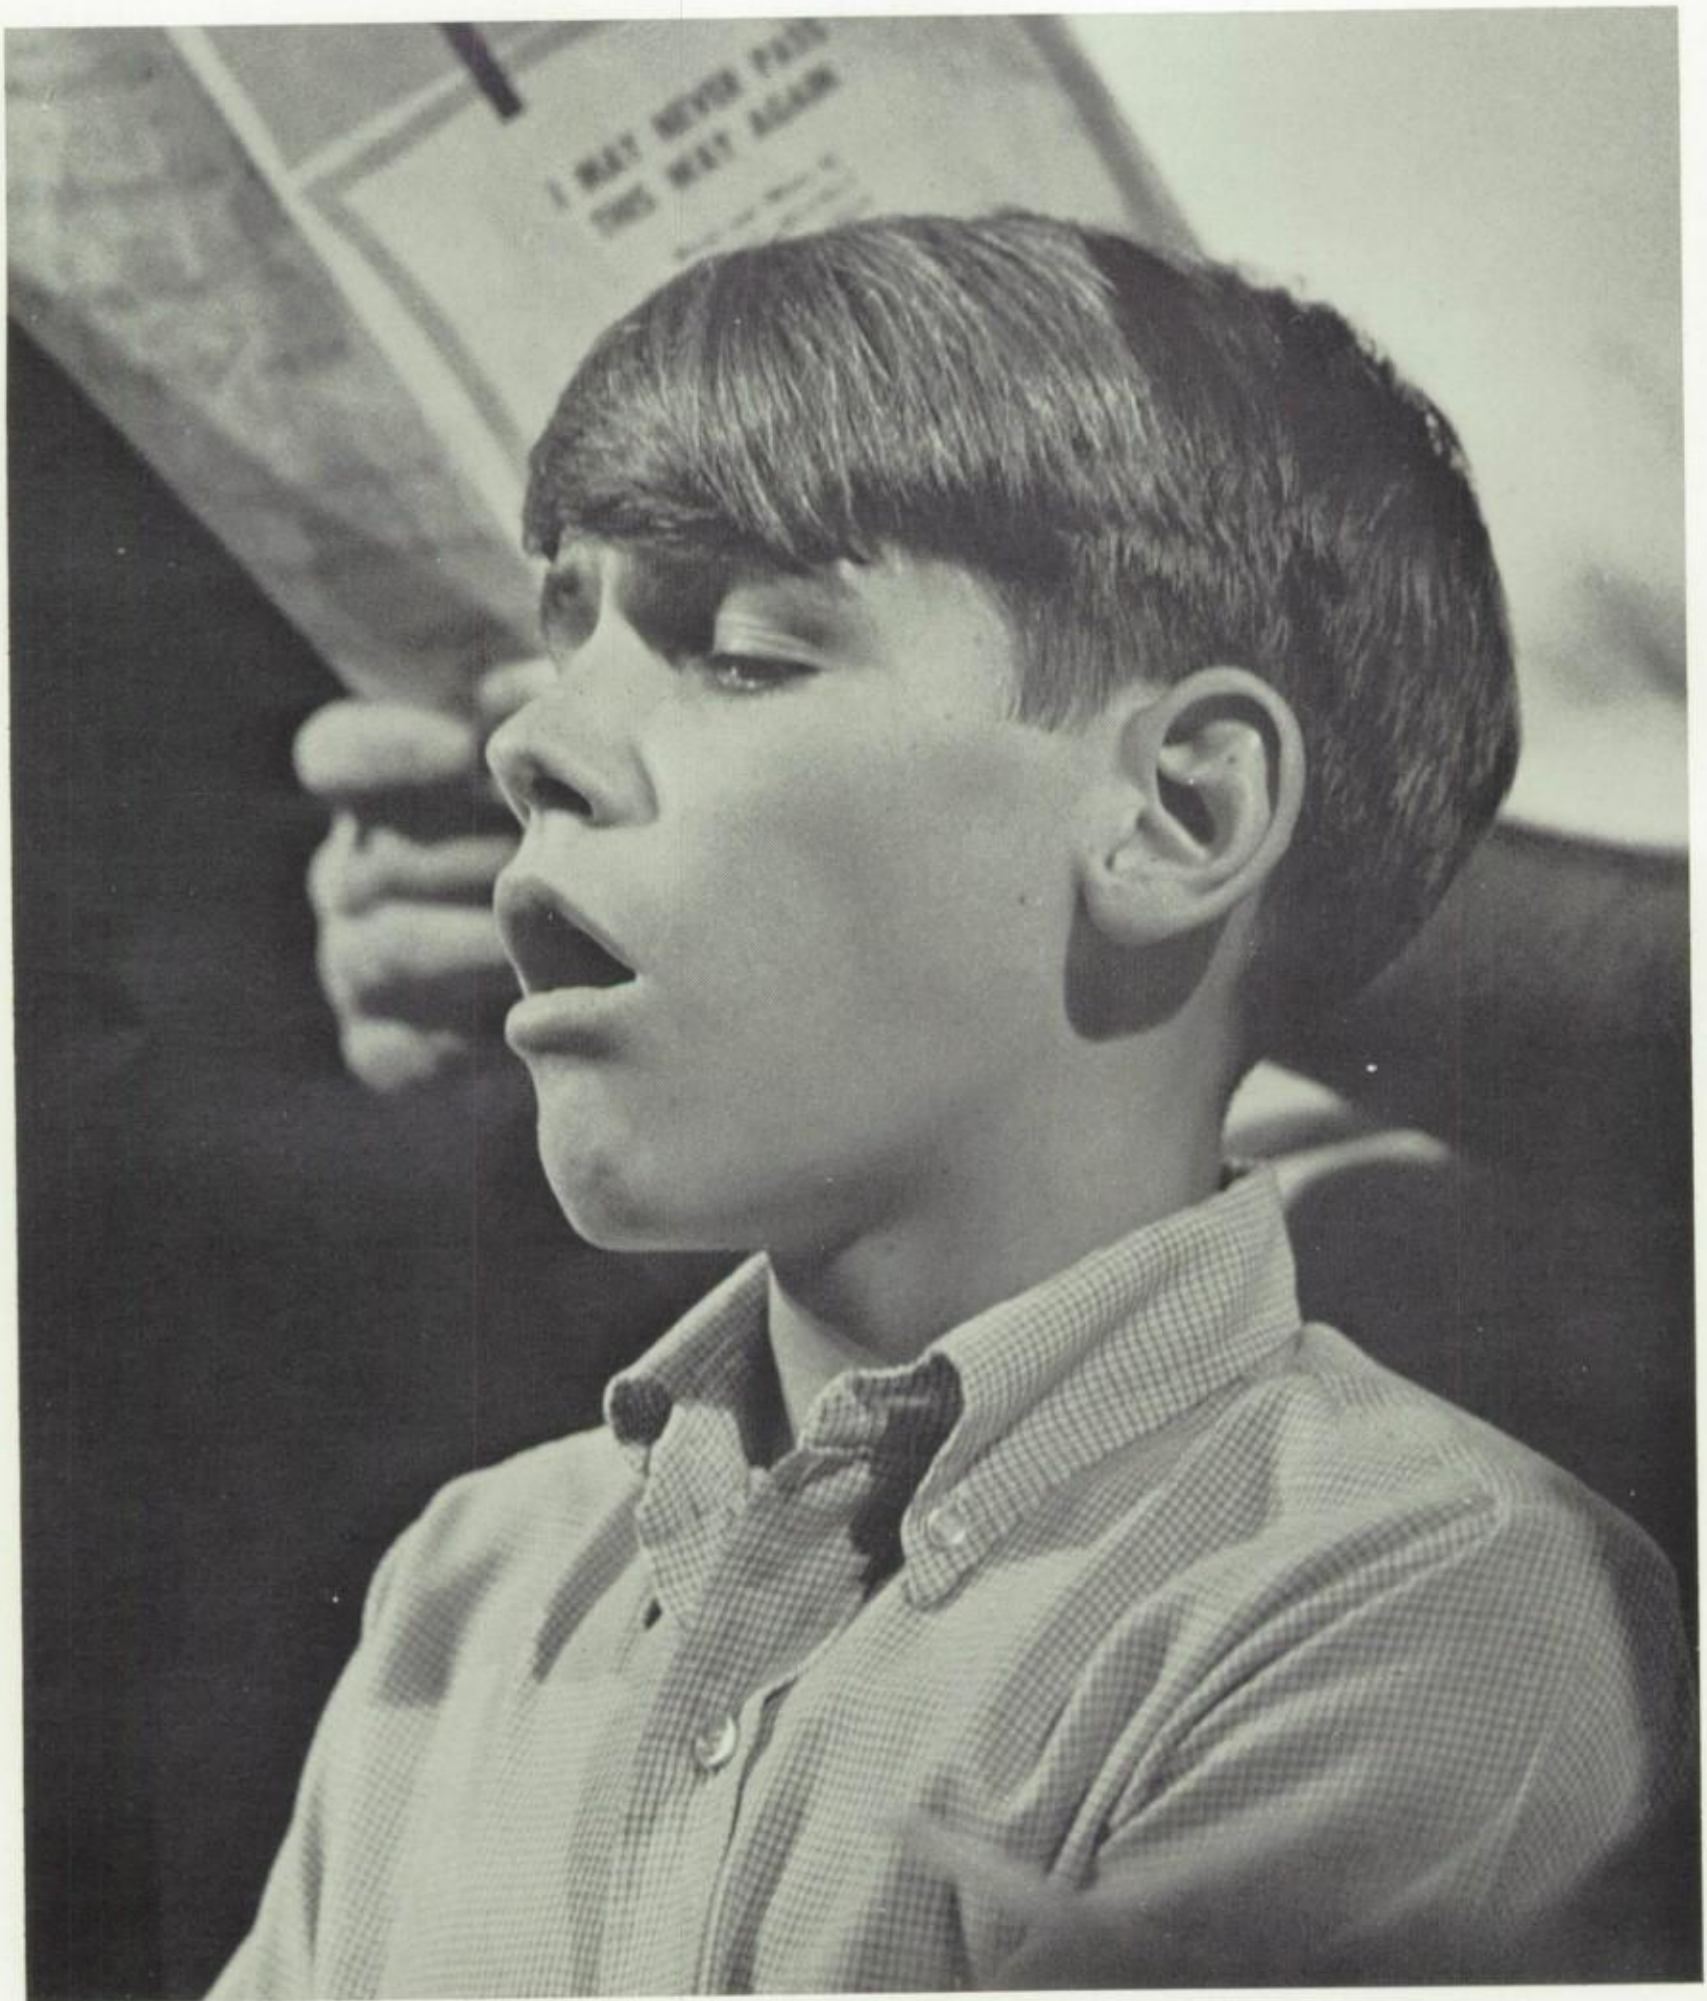

The Southmen included Randy Vaughn, Rickey Jenkins, Billy Sloan, Bo Roe, Bobby Davis, Alan Cole, William Moon, Randy Massingill, Jason Smith, Keith Lynn, Buddy Kinard, Bobby McCuen, Kent Pittman, Gary Van Patton, Barry Beeks, Ronnie Foreman, and Joey Adams.

Members of the Caprice Singers were Alice Lee, Linda Wood, Lynn McCraw, Susan Pittman, Caprice Henderson, Margaret Ann Hazle, Pam Belue, Laura Sellers, Joan Evans.

*Best wishes

Band

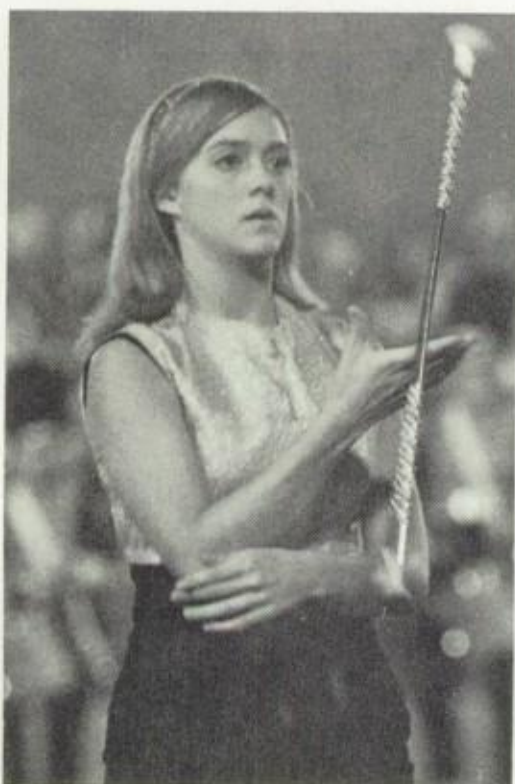

The Band year started two weeks before school with a rigorous practice. Each week the sixty-four members of the marching band worked out a new routine to perform during the half-time shows. In addition to the sixty-four were the colorguard and majorettes. The band marched in Christmas parades in Woodruff, Inman, and Greer and sponsored a spring band concert. For money raising projects they held the Little Miss Greer Pageant in October and sold football cushions later in the year.

Mr. John Rawl served this year as band director. Above Drum Major, Dan Dobson, prepares to lead his band onto the field.

Head majorette this year was Ann Snoddy, who was responsible for working out the intricate majorette routines each week for the field shows.

The other majorettes included Sandra Hunter, senior; Suzanne Aughtry, senior; and Gaie Collins, freshman.

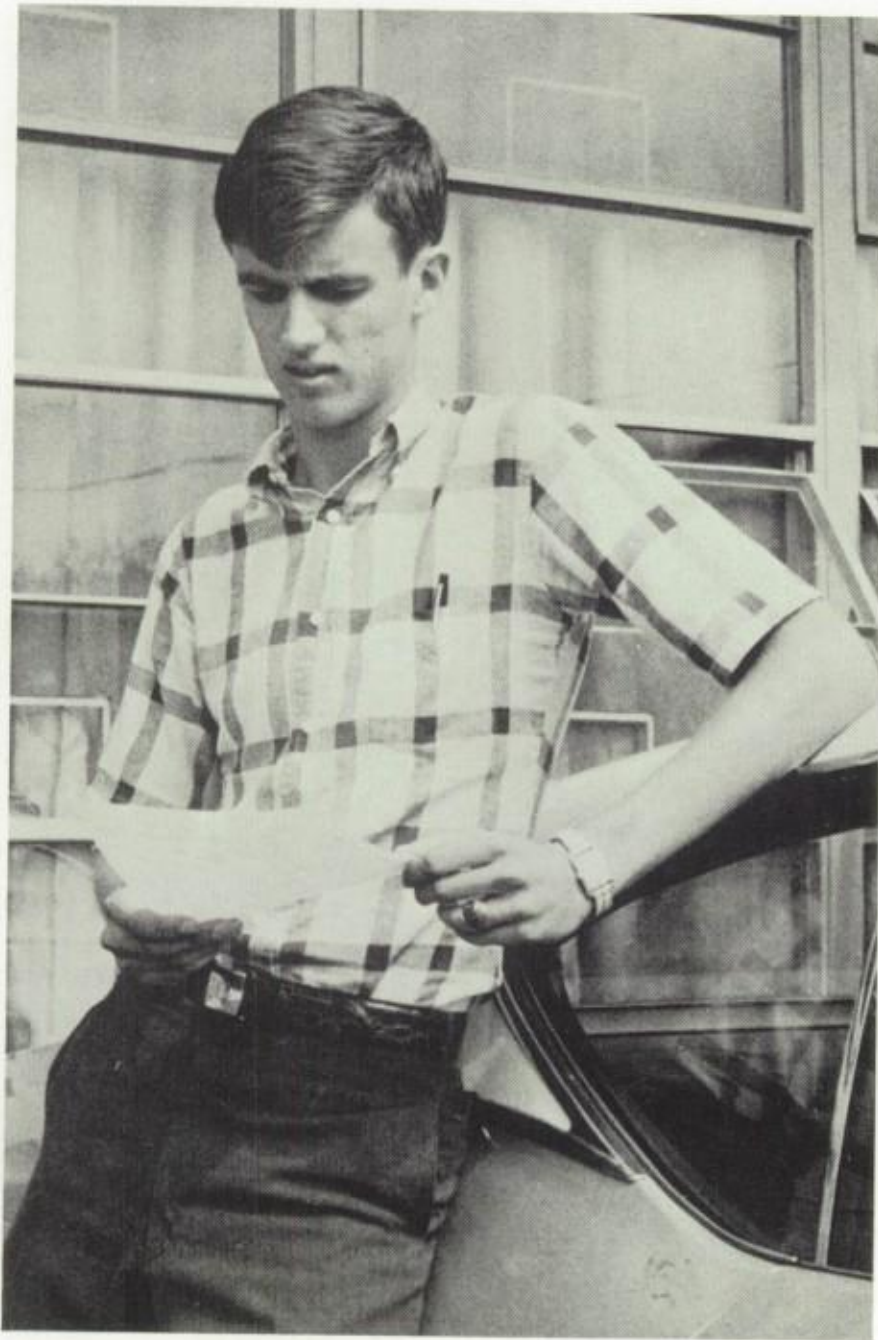

Senior Band members included Donna Voorhees, Jimmie Evans, Gary Johnson, Ricky Wall, Mickey Bridges, Dan Dobson, Jeanne Yost, Denise Mitchell, Suzanne Aughtry, Sandra Hunter, and Ann Snoddy.

The color guard was made up of Jane Holtzclaw, Sheila Kirby, Donna Vaughn, Jeanne Yost, Denise Mitchell, and Celeste Stansell. They played a large role in the half-time activity with the routine and the bearing of the colors.

Key Club

Gary Van Patton, president of the Key Club, supervised a very active year of work. At the beginning of the year, the club assisted the cheerleaders with decorations for Homecoming. Late in October came the observance of National Key Club Week. A clean-up campaign was begun that was both school and city-wide and included cleaning up after the school construction work was done. On November 8 with the Greer Kiwanians, the members held an induction service for pledge members.

Other activities included the promotional work for the "Direction 70" meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Along with other civic organizations members planned to help beautify the triangle at the corner of West Poinsett and Wade Hampton Boulevard.

Spanish Club, Bus Drivers, Art Club, DE

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Ann Thompson, is open to all Spanish students who maintain at least a C average. The club meets the second and fourth Tuesdays at which time a program is given or business discussed. Among the club sponsored activities were a fiesta to initiate the first year students in the fall and a hayride in the spring.

In addition to the regular bus activities and responsibilities, this year the bus drivers were in charge of cleaning up the parking lot several times. They also received new bus jackets in the fall. President of the club was Wanda Teasley.

The main purpose of the Art Club is to make students more aware of the meaning of art. This year the Art Club members participated in the Scholastic Art Award Contest and the Hallmark Card Competition for seniors. They also planned to make an outing to the Bob Jones University Museum.

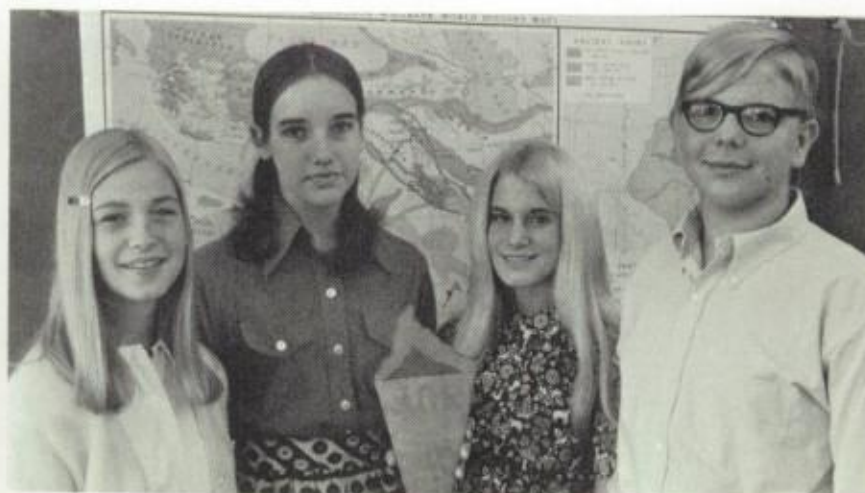

Among the many activities sponsored by the Distributive Education Club were selling cloth calendars as a money raising project and setting up displays in the second floor showcases. The club also planned a Christmas dance. They participated in town and civic activities such as speaking at Chamber of Commerce meetings in Greer, Greenville, and Spartanburg.

FHA, JCL, GAA, FFA

The F.H.A. began its work in the fall with an installation service for officers. These officers later attended a leadership workshop at Blue Ridge High School. The initiation of new members came in November with a hot-dog supper. At Christmas members had a welfare project at the nursing home and later participated in the March of Dimes. During F.H.A. Week in April, the members gave the morning devotions and made cookies for the teachers. Perhaps their most interesting project was the collection of old postage stamps which they sold to an organization called Tubfund whose profits went to fight Tuberculosis. Officers for this year's club were Judy McSwain, Doris Singleton, Vonda Oliver, and Susan Underwood.

The Junior Classical League began its year with a party at the home of Mrs. Harriet Smith. Later in the year the members put on a Roman Wedding. The Latin students celebrated Christmas with the singing of carols in Latin.

The GAA provided an opportunity for girls to participate in a wide variety of sports and activities. This year they sponsored a Powder Puff Football Game along with the regular schedule of basketball, volleyball, soccer, softball, and bowling. The awards banquet in the Spring was the highlight of the year.

With an increased membership, the Future Farmers of America were involved in many activities this year. This summer they planned to send some members to F.F.A. Camp.

FBLA, FTA, Library Club, Pep Club

The Future Business Leaders performed many services for the school this year ranging from the secretarial pool they maintained to aid teachers in clerical work to the monthly duty of putting up a bulletin board in room 302. FBLA members also planned to help a needy family at Thanksgiving and to make a trip to a local business to observe their field at work. Several speakers also talked with members on various related subjects of the club.

The main goal of the Future Teachers is to be of service to our present teachers and thus learn what is involved in this profession. This year the members spent many hours doing specific jobs for the faculty. In November they sponsored a week of devotionals given by the teachers. They also made cookies for the teachers on Teacher Appreciation Day, put up a bulletin board on American Education Week, and served the community at Thanksgiving, Easter, and Christmas with different projects.

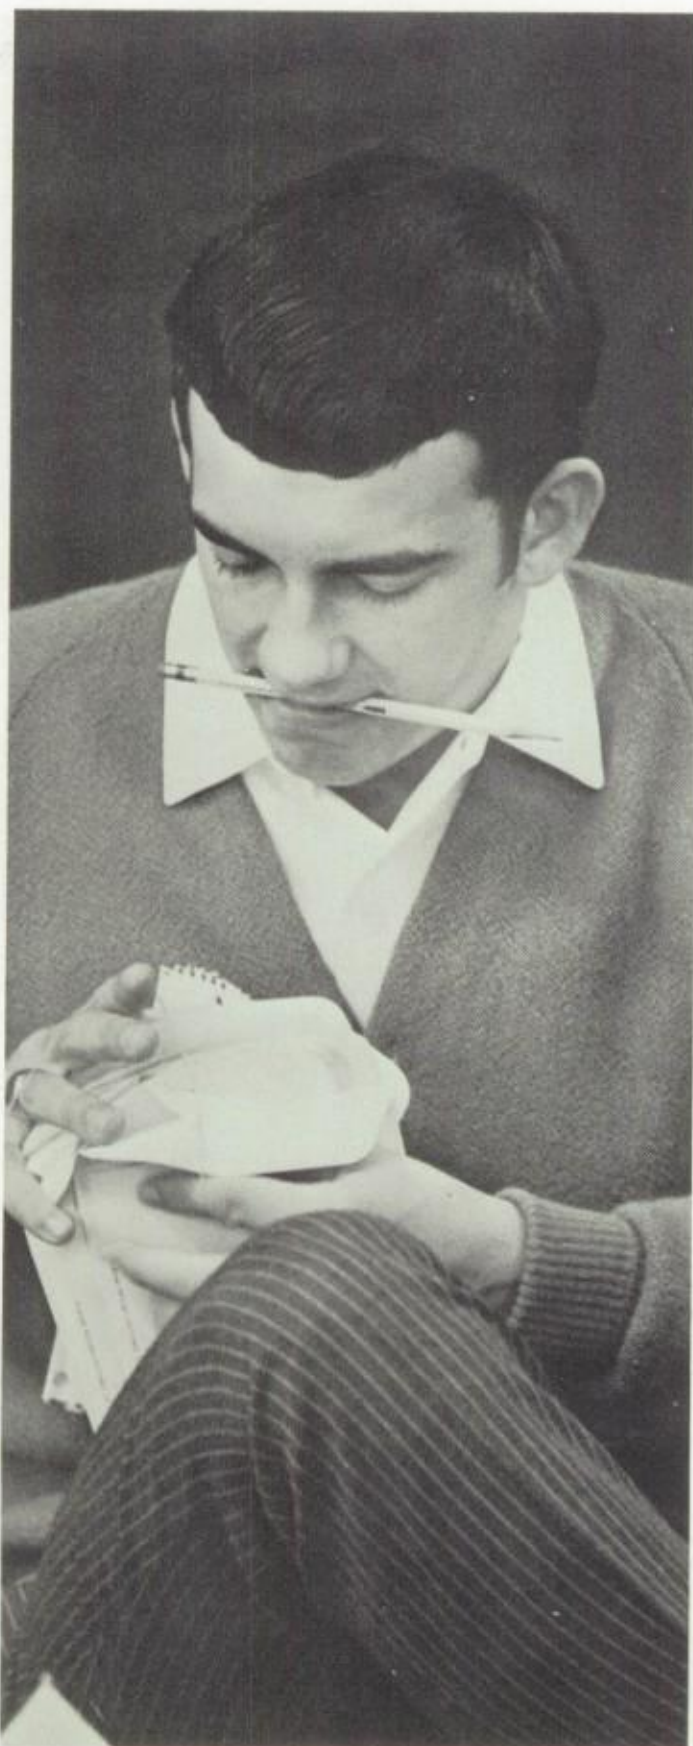

The Library Club is a service organization for the benefit of the students. During the year their duties included the checking out, shelving, and mending of books. To make their plans, they held monthly meetings. All displays and the many attractive bulletin boards in the library were also their work.

The Pep Club is a spirit organization that promotes school loyalty. The members were active this year in making the many signs before each ballgame and displaying much school and team support. The last pep rally of the season was planned and carried out by the Pep Club members.

Le Flambeau

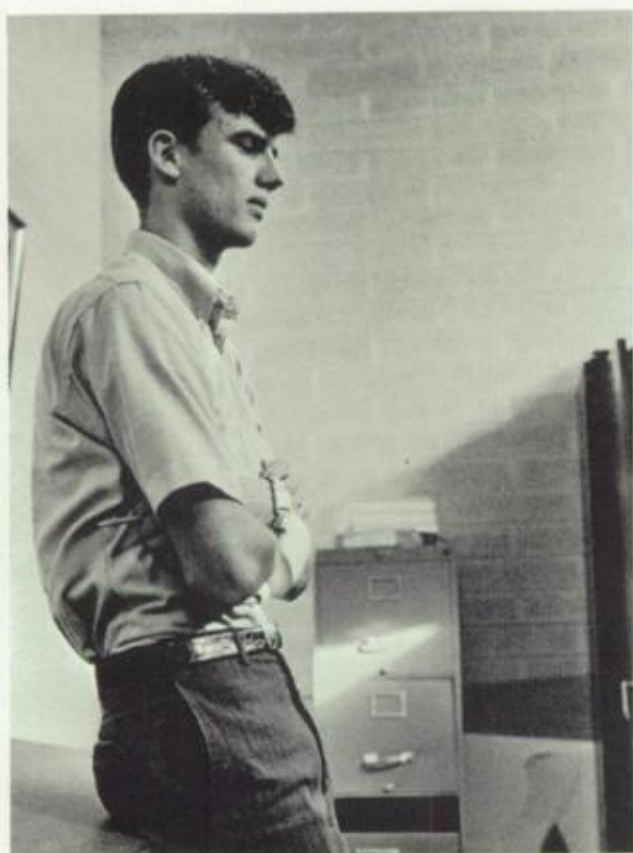

Barry Cason, editor-in-chief, headed a staff of 29 to produce the 1970 Le Flambeau.

Karen Hazle, business manager, took charge of all subscription and advertising money. She also handled the distribution of class pictures.

Both Marsha Smith and Mike Summey served as associate editors. Marsha was in charge of all copy; Mike drew the layouts.

Calendar

Just as it was in the world of current events, the 1969-70 school year at Greer High was one of change and growth. The school grew physically as a new wing was constructed to take care of the nearly 1200 students. The modern lab equipment, the new library, the bright new guidance department, and a new agriculture department lent an aspect of beauty and utility to the school when they were finished in February. In fact, the feeling of change and a new age was carried over from the spectacular moon landing of Apollo 11 that the students had witnessed during the summer. Yet, as students returned to school, they had an underlying feeling of finality. For they realized that the end of this first semester marked the end to a decade. The approach of 1970 brought a unique feeling of change. To the Seniors, 70 was a magic number to glory in for nine full months. As the year grew older students became aware of the approaching South Carolina Tricentennial observance to be held in the spring.

Then came the desegregation decision, and suddenly tension grew as Greenville County faced this overwhelming job to be done in so short a time period. But through the effort and cooperation of students, administrations, and teachers, the problems involving the change-over and also the accommodation of the seventh graders from Davenport were finally worked out.

This year Greer High and the community of Greer offered many extra-curricular activities to the student. It was through activities like the following that the Greer High student was able to be educated not simply to academic matters, but also to understanding and working with other people.

August 27, 1969 School Opens

The excitement and expectancy were contagious as students gathered at the door of Greer High School once again. After a summer filled with freedom, school offered a change of pace. The enrollment now reached almost 1200, and ten portable classrooms were required. The faculty had fourteen new teachers and a new school nurse. There were even new subjects to be taught this year as Humanities and Special Education were added to the list of courses. The new Humanities class, under the instruction of Mrs. Harriet Smith, studied the characteristics of civilizations of all ages and their contributions in literature and art. The Special Education class, under the supervision of Miss Mary Doggett, studied in block periods fundamental concepts and arts and crafts.

Perhaps the most noticeable change was the construction work going on to build a new wing. The sounds of construction were sometimes overwhelming as the continuous buzz of the construction team and the hammering of the workmen blended with the sounds of the teachers' voice. However, the student's ear gradually grew accustomed to the constant and noisy cacophony of hammering, sawing, and machinery.

September 5, 1969 - Pep Rally

The first pep rally of the football season began after school in the parking lot where a large caravan gathered and marched down Main Street to the Citizens and Southern National Bank. The fire truck and the band led the way for a long train of cars. In the bank parking lot, after cheering, the students watched as head cheerleader Lisa Hawkins replaced the eagle on the weather vane with a large Yellow Jacket.

September 11, 1969 - Nomination of Class Officers

The Senior Class chose its four officers from these nominees: Barry Cason, Alex Dobson, Ruth Harrill, Marsha Smith, Judi Strange, and Marcia Wallace. The Junior Class nominated Ann Barton, Nancy Cox, Danny Simms, and Reggie Chesson for the presidential and vice-presidential offices. Pam Ammons, Perrin Cox, Kaja Henderson, and Ricky Jenkins were nominees for secretary and treasurer. Out of the Sophomore Class Keith Trout, Barry Huey, Libby Wallace, Linda Wood, and Randy McCullen were nominated for president and vice-president. For secretary and treasurer they nominated Mary Paget, Chip Patat, Margaret An Hazle, and Debbie Parris.

The following officers were elected for the 1969-1970 term: Seniors; Alex Dobson, president; Ruth Harrill, vice-president; Marsha Smith, secretary; and Judi Strange, treasurer. Junior officers included Reggie Chesson, president; Danny Simms, vice-president; Pam Ammons, secretary; and Perrin Cox, treasurer. Sophomores chose Keith Trout, president; Linda Wood, vice-president; Mary Paget, secretary; and Chip Patat, treasurer. Later in the year the following Freshman Class officers were elected: Mike Lynn, president; Tommy Kay, vice-president; Ronda Eledge, secretary; and Shirley Wolfe, treasurer.

September 21, 1969 Prep Player of the Week

Alex Dobson was honored to become one of eleven high school football players chosen as a Prep Player of the week by the Greenville Piedmont for his game action in the Hillcrest game. On the 26th of October, another Greer student, Mike Hudson, was also awarded this title by the Greenville News for the playing abilities he displayed in the Palmetto game.

October 3-30, 1969 Magazine Sale

The Junior Class Magazine Sale brought in more than $4086.51 with a $1,600 profit for the class. The top five salesmen were Bobby Kay, Ellen Lyman, Babe Rayburn, Bill Davidson, and Marva Sullivan. Thirty people sold 50% magazines and won the prize dolls "Psyche" and "Soul Baby." The top homerooms were Mrs. Price's, Mrs. McKown's and Miss Fant's. The profit went into the class treasury to help pay for the Junior-Senior dance.

October 10, 1969 Black and Gold Day

The students displayed their school spirit all day on Homecoming by wearing black and gold along with the specially ordered sportster hats and badges. A pep rally was held in the afternoon in preparation for the Homecoming game and festivities that night.

October 13, 1969 Rotary Club Music Award

Marva Sullivan was the recipient of the Rotary Club music award. After competing with many other students in a try-out, Marva, along with two other girls, was chosen for the award.

October 11, 1969 All State Chorus

All state chorus try-outs were held in Greenville where many high school students competed for positions in the chorus. Greer High students selected to participate were Alan Cole and Buddy Kinard. This year music was written especially for the All State Chorus for the South Carolina Tricentennial Observance. On April 25th the group gave its Tricentennial performance.

October 22, -Nov. 5, 1969 Candy Sale

This year's annual Candy Sale was one of the most successful ever held at Greer High. Within two days all of the 13,000 bars ordered had been distributed. The six top salesmen in the school were Greg Kellum, with 304 bars, Wayne Merritt with 275 bars, Janet Jones with 206 bars, Beverly Petree with 167 bars, Susan Burns with 144 bars, and Donna Lesley with 135 bars. The proceeds from this sale went to individual class treasuries with proceeds from the two smallest day's profit going for student council activities.

October 24, 1969 Ring Day

The long awaited day for the class of '70 finally arrived. Excitement and pride filled the auditorium as Mr. Thompson presented the class officers their rings first. Senior class president, Alex Dobson, spoke of the "eleven years and thirty-three dollars" that the rings stood for, and then he gave the rings to homeroom presidents to distribute among the students. The seniors eagerly counted to 70 and placed the rings on their fingers.

November 1, 1969 Drama Club

A new drama club was organized under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Fant. Many interested students signed up to participate. According to Miss Fant, "the club was begun to give interested students a chance to express themselves in the dramatic field. Anyone may join the club as long as he shows a sincere interest to help. Students may help by acting, directing, making scenery or costumes, or by helping with make-up. Already many students have done various skits and pantomimes. The drama club will also be instrumental in putting on plays at Greer High."

November 6, 1969 Civilization Classes Tour Bob Jones University

Mrs. Barnett's Western Civilization classes made a tour of the famed Bob Jones University Art Museum. The historical art works were related to the material they studied in the classroom.

November 11 and 13, 1969

English Classes Visit Village Theater

The junior, senior, and sophomore English classes made a visit to the Village Dinner Theater for dinner and the production of "Lo and Behold," a delightful comedy about a ghost. The students made the trip to the theater in assigned buses.

November 12, 1969 Coach Clark Resigns

After twenty years of dedicated coaching of the Greer High Yellow Jackets, Coach Phil Clark stepped down from the position of head coach. Coach Clark will continue at Greer as athletic director, coach for the golf team, and head of the intramural athletic program.

November 12, 1969 Shrine Bowl

Two senior members of the football team, Alex Dobson and Keith Hannon, were honored to be chosen for the South Carolina team of the Shrine Bowl. The game was held on December 6 in Charlotte, North Carolina, and was well attended by the people of Greer.

November 14, 1969 Last Pep Rally

The last pep rally of the football season was dedicated to Coach Clark in appreciation for the hard work, time, and dedication he has given throughout the years as head coach. Head cheerleader, Lisa Hawkins, presented a cake to the Coach, and Mrs. Phil Clark was also recognized for her support. Since it was the Class of 70's last pep rally, they presented a good-bye song as a finale.

November 14, 1969 Student Council Dance

After the last game of the season, the Student Council sponsored a dance for all students of Greer High School. The dance was well attended, and students enjoyed entertainment by the Blue Medallions.

November 19, 1969 Coach Jimmy Few Appointed Head Coach

After the announcement of Coach Clark's resignation, Jimmy Few was named for the position of head coach of the Yellow Jackets. Coach Few graduated from Greer High himself and has been on our coaching staff for four years.

November 23, 1969 "The Place"

"The Place" was a new WEAB radio program sponsored by the Greer Ministers Association. The program was taped during the week by several of Greer's students and was on the air every Sunday at 2:00 p.m. Steve Lynn, Jeanne Yost, Denise Mitchell, Ruth Harrill, and Alan Cole were the original group and were later joined by Ernie Denny, Marsha Smith, Karen Hazle, Mark Morrow, and Martha Sullivan. With the Reverend Harlan Wilson moderating, the students listened to songs on the "top forty" charts and afterward discussed each song's music, meaning, and relevance. Several special shows were done on specific musicians like The Beatles, Bob Dylan, and Simon and Garfunkel.

November 26, 1969 Thanksgiving Holidays

The Thanksgiving Holidays were begun with a musical presentation of sacred and secular music by the Choral Department in the afternoon.

December 9, 1969 Football Banquet

Coach Frank Howard, retired head coach and present athletic director of Clemson University, was the speaker at the annual football banquet. Alex Dobson was presented the Most Valuable Player of the Year Trophy.

Dean Kimbrell received the Sportsmanship Award. Sonny Truesdale was awarded the Best Blocker Trophy, and Mike Hudson accepted the Best Defense Award.

December 13, 1969 Miss Le Flambeau Pageant

A Christmas theme was used in this year's Miss Le Flambeau Pageant as forty girls competed for class beauties. There were five Freshman contestants, five Sophomore contestants, ten Juniors, and twenty Seniors. The Freshman contestants were Nelle James, Ronda Eledge, Shirley Wolfe, Angie Bull, and Nancy Walker. Sophomore girls were Margaret An Hazel, Rita Howell, Linda Wood, Libby Wallace, and Debbie Parris.

The Junior nominees were Sandra Terry, Pam Belue, Barby Lurey, Kaja Henderson, Lynne Satterfield, Marie Snoddy, Debbie Smith, Pam Ammons, Paulette Garrett, and Yvonne Smith. The Seniors included Jeannie Lister, Pam Redman, Lisa Hawkins, Pam Vaughn, Pam Satterfield, Babs Parris, Karen Hazle, Sandy Hunter, Denise Howell, Kay Chastain, Judi Strange, Carolyn Harley, Suzanne Aughtry, Ann Snoddy, Marcia Wallace, Ruth Harrill, Debby Carman, Debbie Dobson, Debbie Ammons, and Diane Snow. The four emcees for the pageant were Barry Cason, Mike Summey, Reggie Chesson, and Gary Van Patton. Hostess for the evening was Marsha Smith.

December 18, 1969 Christmas Concert

The Choral Department put on a special Christmas Concert for the public at 7:30 p.m. The holiday music program included many Christmas arrangements by the different Choral groups. Special numbers were done by the Teen Tones, the Southmen, and Ricky Jenkins and Bo Roe who sang and played the guitar.

Alan Cole picks out a selection for discussion by "The Place" panelists on an upcoming program.

December 19, 1969 Christmas Holidays

The long awaited Christmas holidays finally arrived, and students were dismissed. This year the holidays were extra long because three week-ends were included.

December 20, 1969 Christmas Ball

One of the highlights of the Christmas festivities was the Christmas Ball sponsored by the Key Club. The band for the evening was Marcus Penland and the Pendants from Greenville. Intermission entertainment featured Ricky Jenkins and Bo Roe on guitar and a special visit from Santa Claus. Proceeds from the Ball were used by the Key Club for various civic activities.

January 16, 18, 19, 1970 Exams

A new exam schedule was used at Greer High this year so that students could have a definite time set up for each subject exam. There were three days of exams each including 2 two-hour exams. The first day was for the first and sixth periods, the second day for second and fifth periods, and the third day for the third and fourth periods. Lunch was served each day, but the students could go home for lunch if they wanted. The exam grade was to be counted as one fifth of the total nine weeks grade.

January 19, 1970 Court Decision

A new court order declared that Greenville county schools must desegregate by early February. The court decision meant a short time in which much planning and work had to be completed. A later decision moved the deadline date up to February 17.

January 28, 1970 Homemaker of Tomorrow Award

Jo Ann Lindsay was the winner of this year's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. Jo Ann took a test not only on the subject of home economics, but also including all school subjects in order to be eligible to win.

January 30, 1970 Opening of "Peace by Piece" Coffeehouse

Teenagers of all denominations worked for nearly a month to complete decorations and other preparations for the opening of a new coffeehouse they called the "Peace by Piece". The coffeehouse, located on Main Street, belongs to the Memorial United Methodist Church whose members gave four rooms of the old parsonage for the cause. The "Peace by Piece" was open each weekend night and provided a much needed place to meet for many teenagers in the Greer area.

February 1, 1970 Davenport Junior High Destroyed by Fire

The people of Greer were astounded by the complete destruction by fire of Davenport Junior High School. The school had served not only as a Junior High, but was also formerly used as a Senior High. The fire left some 631 students without a school.

February 17, 1970

Because of the 7th graders move to Greer High as a result of the Davenport fire, Greer was not able to completely meet integration plan on the appointed day for Greenville county. After the one day school recess of the day before, students came back to school on Tuesday, when the new wing was officially moved into. The completed wing included up-to-date science labs, a new guidance department, and the new library. The new equipment cost over $100,000.00. In the process of desegregation Greer High lost three teachers and gained three new ones, Mrs. Peggy Monroe, Mrs. Martha Gregory, and Mr. James Murray. Although the seventh graders occupied the portables, relatively few class changes had to be made. However new schedule sheets were given out and rooms re-numbered.

February 30, 1970 Greer High Times Changes Advisor

The February Greer High Times marked a change of advisor because of the retirement of Mr. Lester Bowles, who had been newspaper sponsor for 19 years. Mrs. Bill Groce took the position of guiding the staff of the Greer High Times.

March 7, 1970 Solar Eclipse

Though a cloudy day marred the excitement of the solar eclipse, many people expectantly constructed the peep-hole cardboard lenses and tuned their T.V. sets on to this unusual phenomena of nature. Charleston, S. C.,

Okefenokee Swamp, Ga., and Mexico were some of the places where a total eclipse could be observed. Not until 2025 will another eclipse as spectacular as this one occur.

March 10 and 11, 1970 Visit to Village Theater

On Tuesday and Thursday night the Senior and Junior English classes went to the Village Theater for dinner and the production of the western musical comedy, "The Saga of Roaring Gulch." The students were given cardboard cowboy hats and afterward invited to meet the cast off stage.

March 13, 1970 Job Fair.

The 1970 Job Fair was sponsored by the Greater Greenville Chamber of Commerce and the Textile Hall Corporation. Senior High School students were bussed to Textile Hall from all over Greenville County and several surrounding counties to observe and obtain information on job opportunities open to students upon graduation from High School.

April 25, 1970 Junior-Senior The Junior-Senior Prom

was held at Memorial Auditorium on April 25, 1970. The Junior class was responsible for putting on the dance, and class officers Reggie Chesson, Pam Ammons, Perrin Coxe, and Danny Simms made up the main work committee. There was a total of nine committees to help carry out the timely theme of "The Age of Aquarius", and the Homeroom presidents served as heads of these committees. Mrs. Genevieve Collins served as advisor to the Juniors. Music for the evening was provided by the "Entertainers" from Greenville.

May 28, 1970 Graduation

The nearly 200 member class of 1970 graduated on the twenty-fifth after four years of high school work. This class was the first to be required to have 18 units, two more than previous classes. Graduation night is always an odd mixture of joy and sadness, just as it was for the class of '70. It represents pride and achievement along with the sadness of leaving. The Class of '70 embarked on a new style of life and a new decade.

The Senior

The quotations on the following pages were taken from various members of the senior class. They are a representative sampling of what a senior feels and thinks.

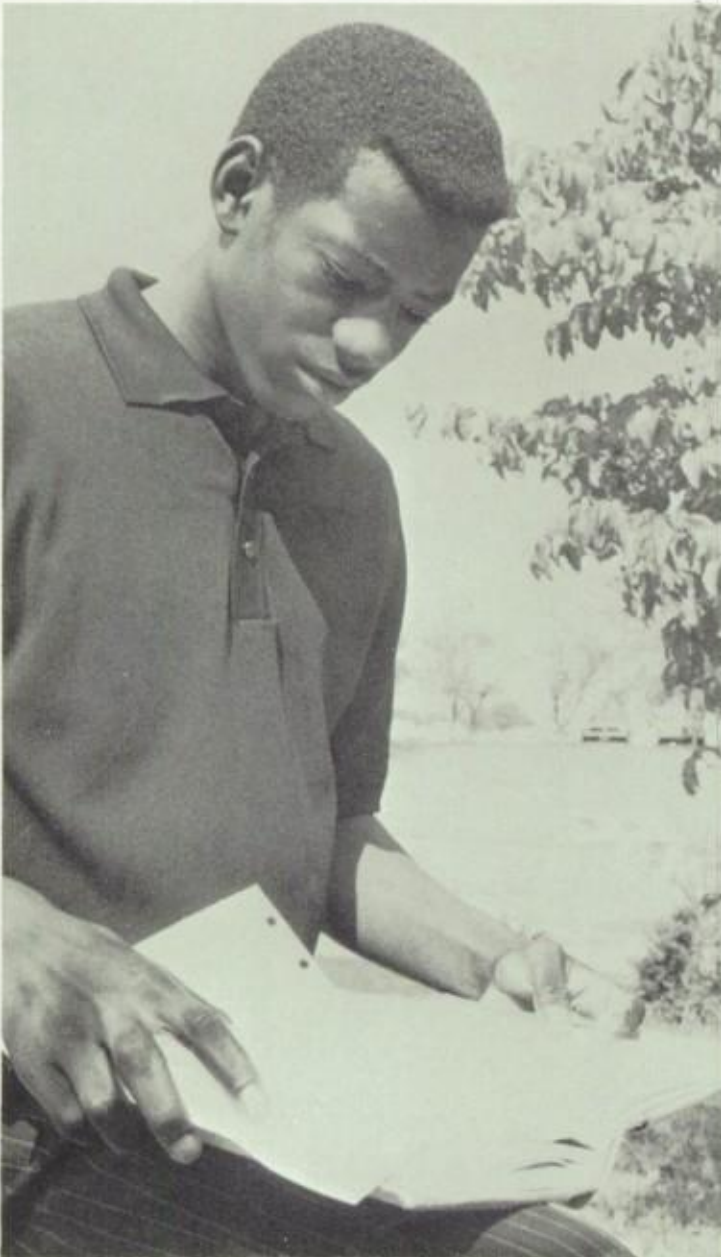

"Most of all being a senior is getting a diploma and being eligible for college or a good job."

"It means being able to wear and show off a senior ring."

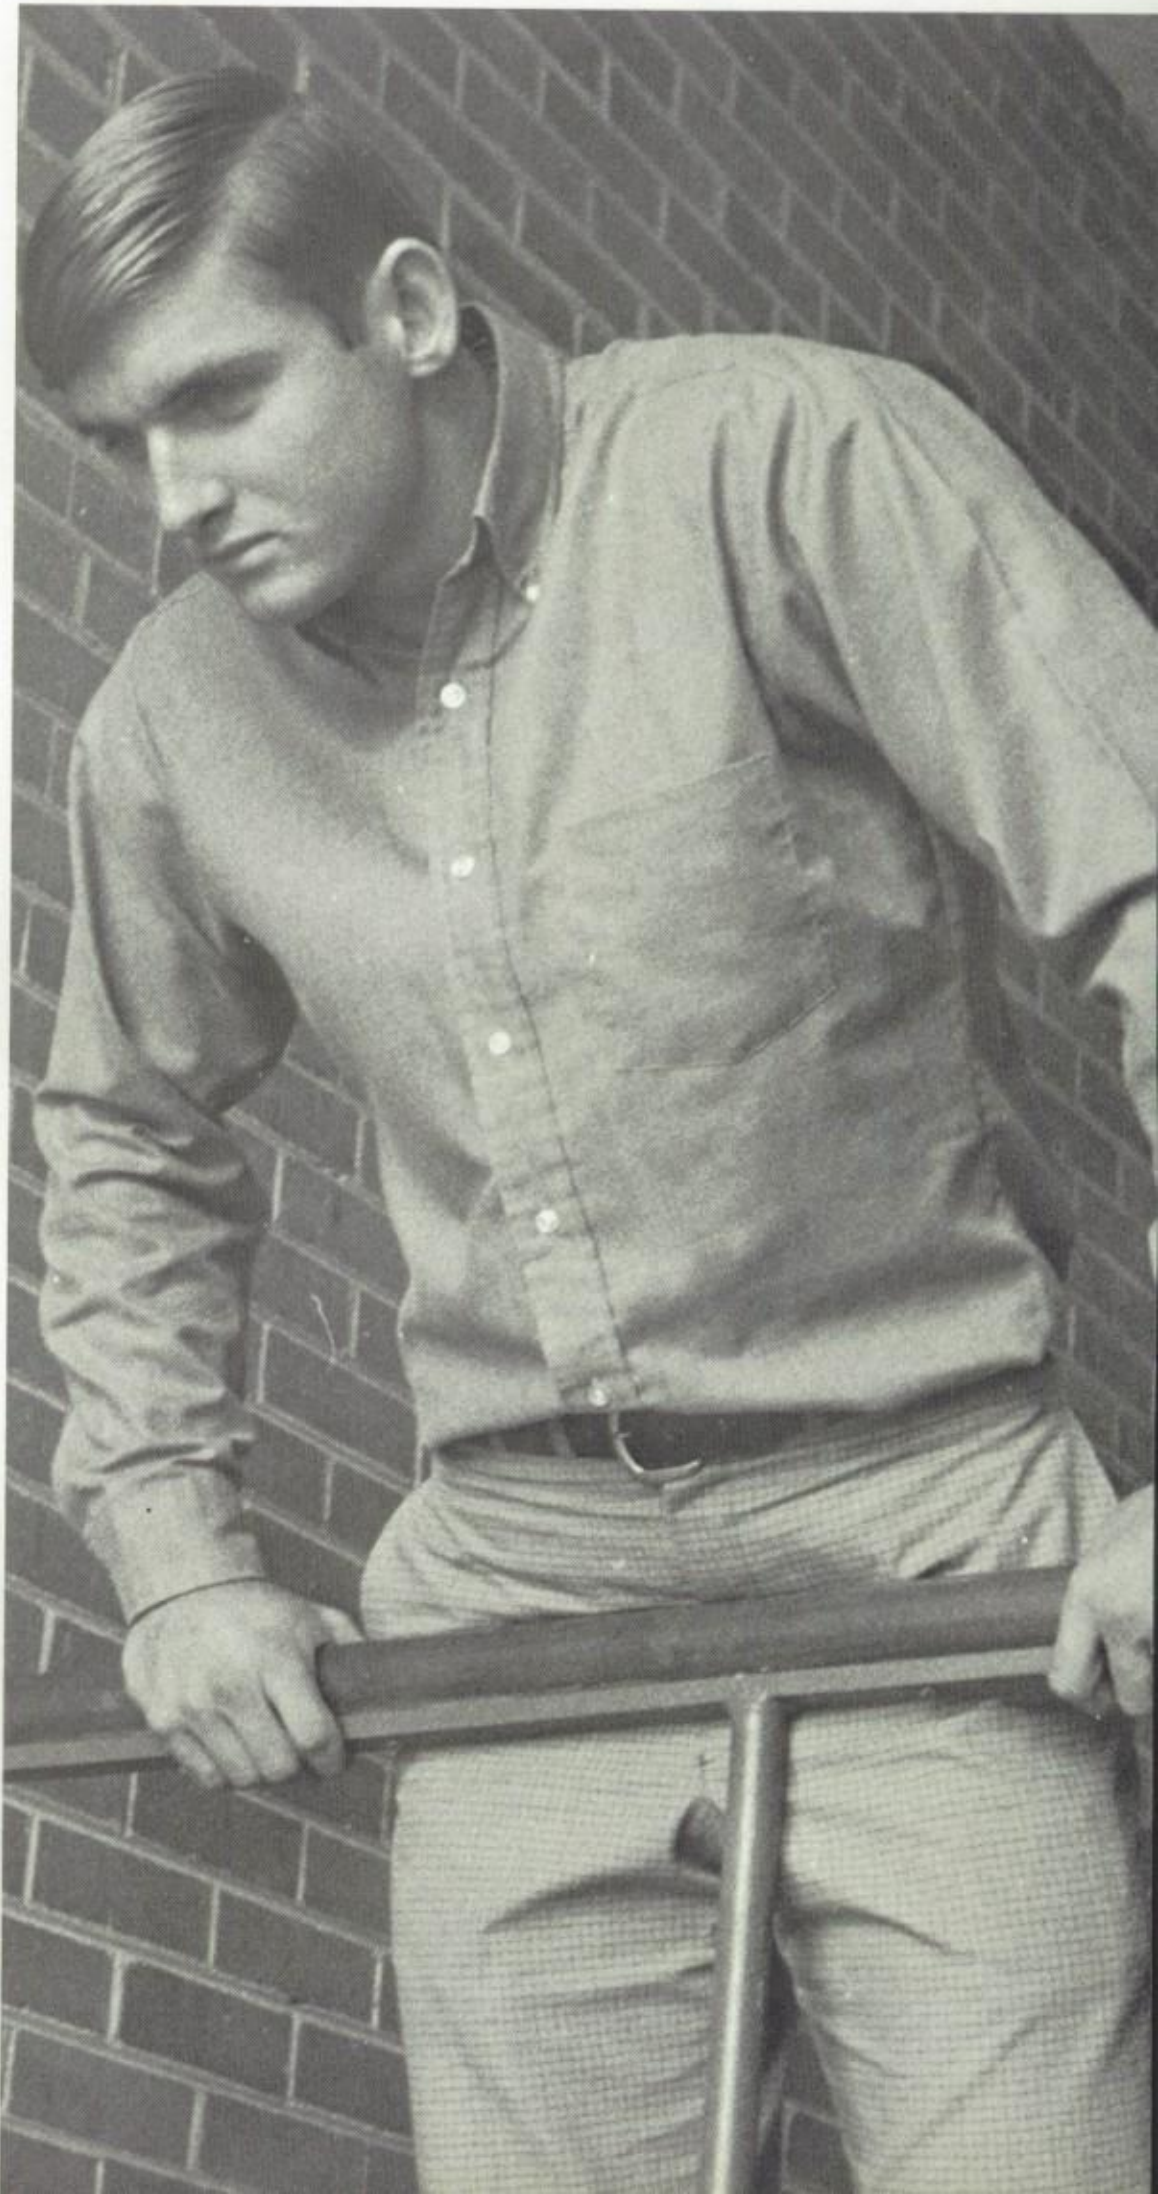

"The things you did as a freshman and a sophomore and a junior seem small and unimportant, and you realize that soon this last year will seem small, too."

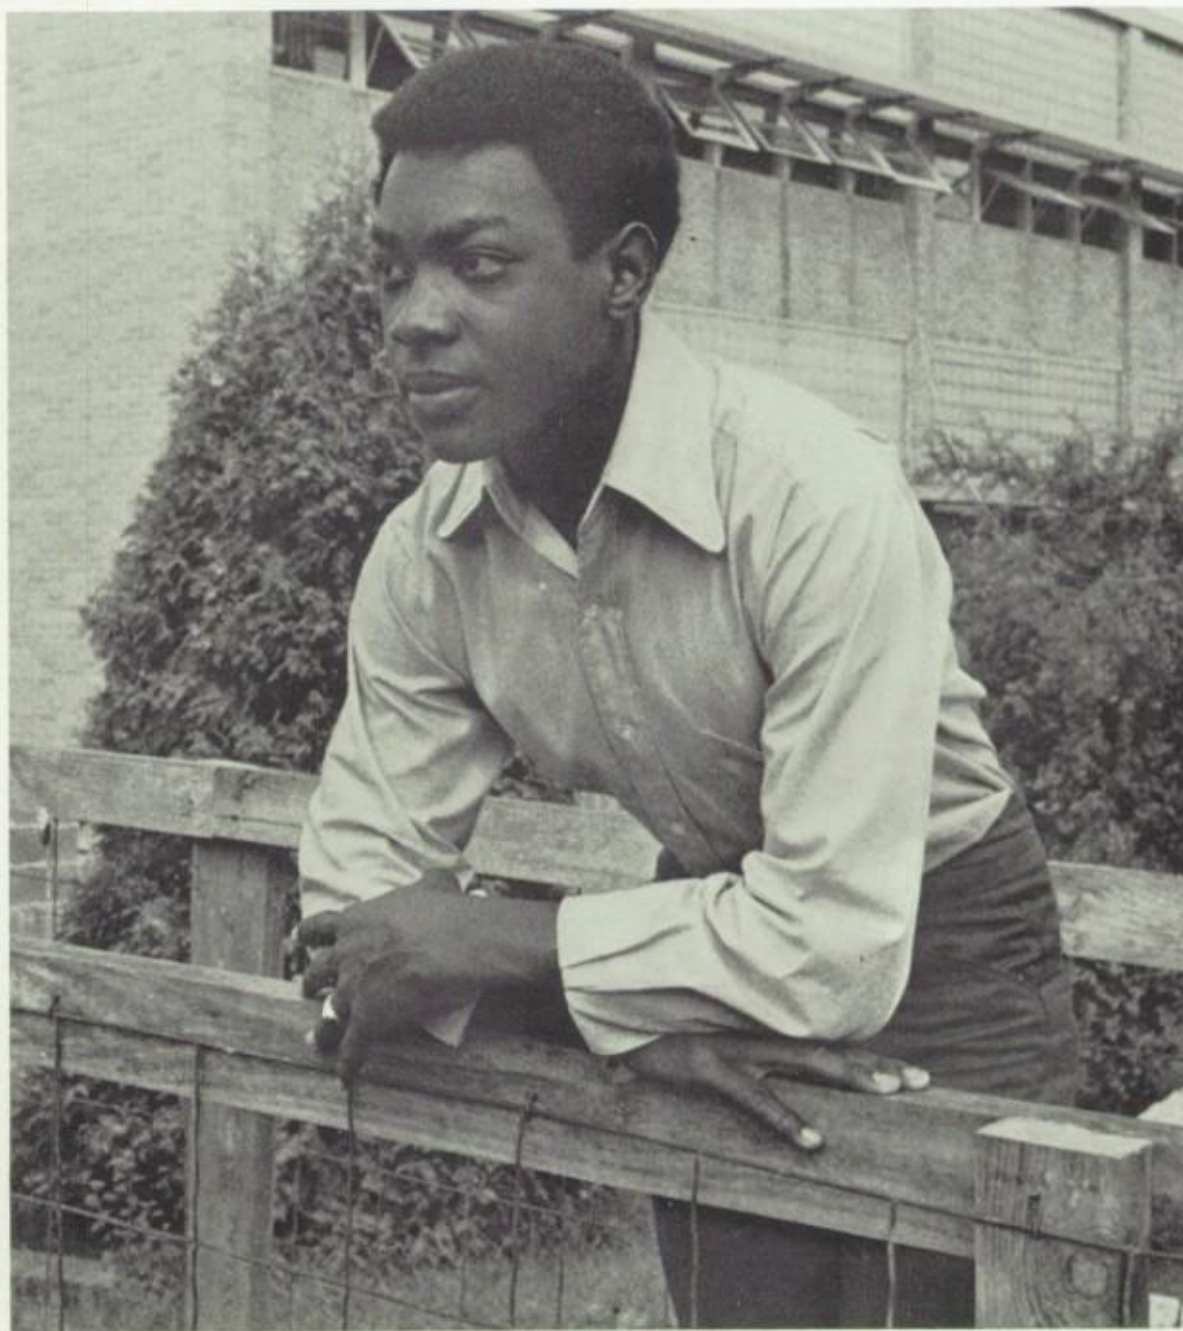

"You have climbed the stairs for eleven years, and now you have reached the top step and you look down and back."

"Being a senior is worrying about being called to the Service."

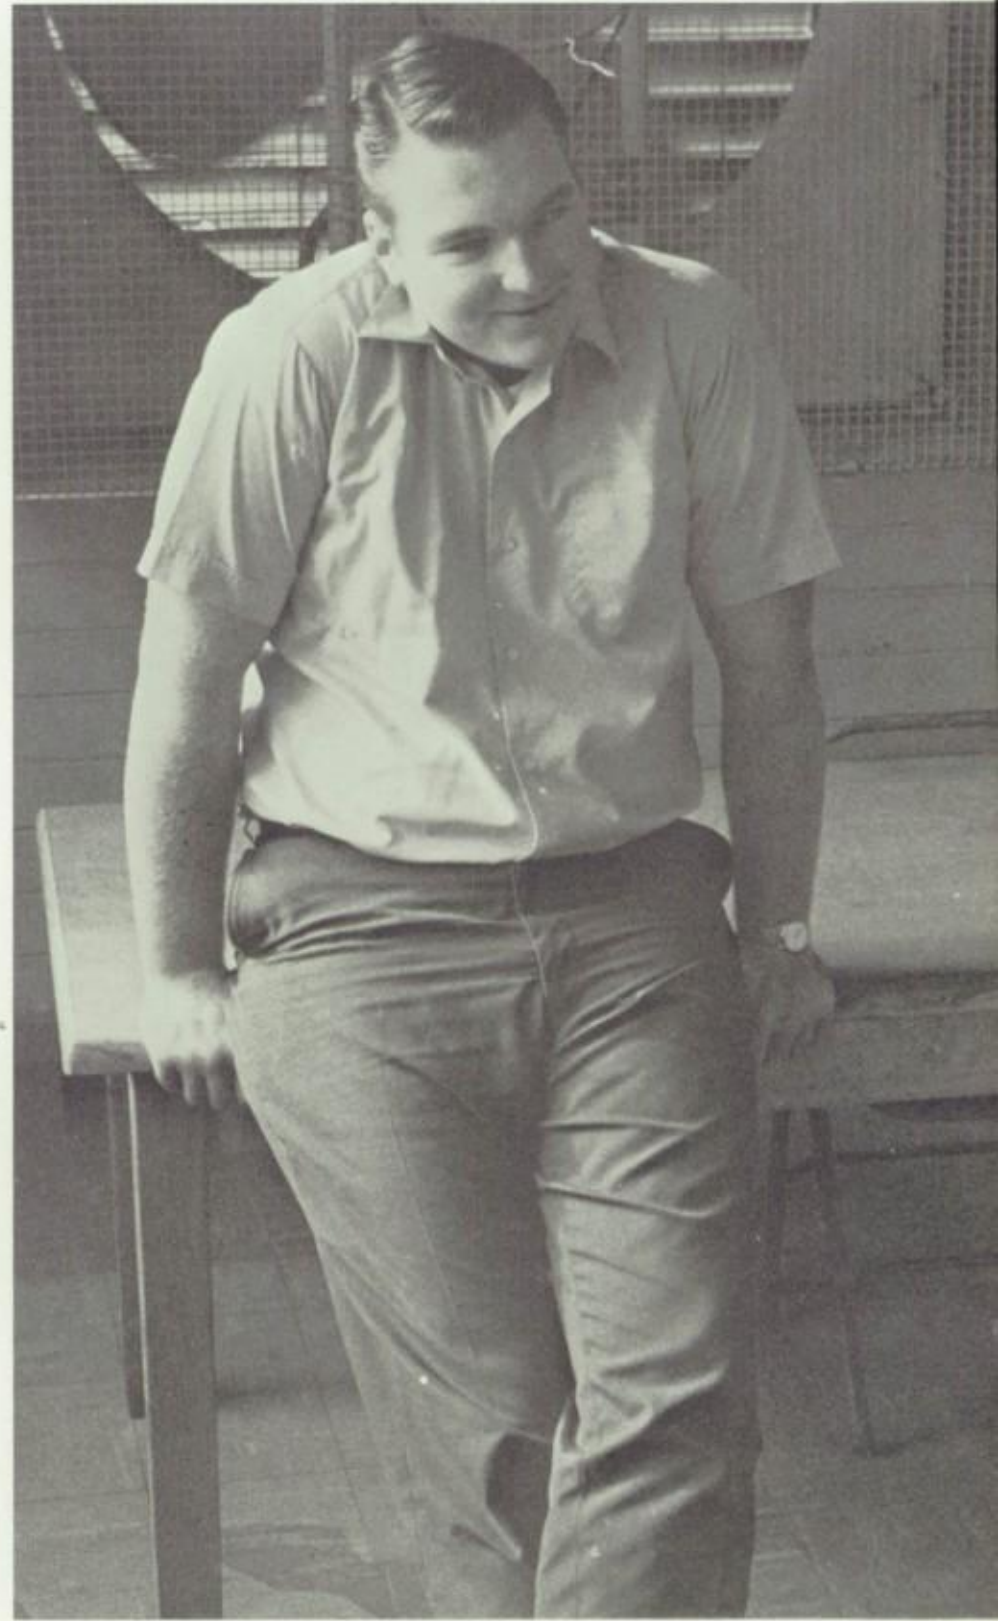

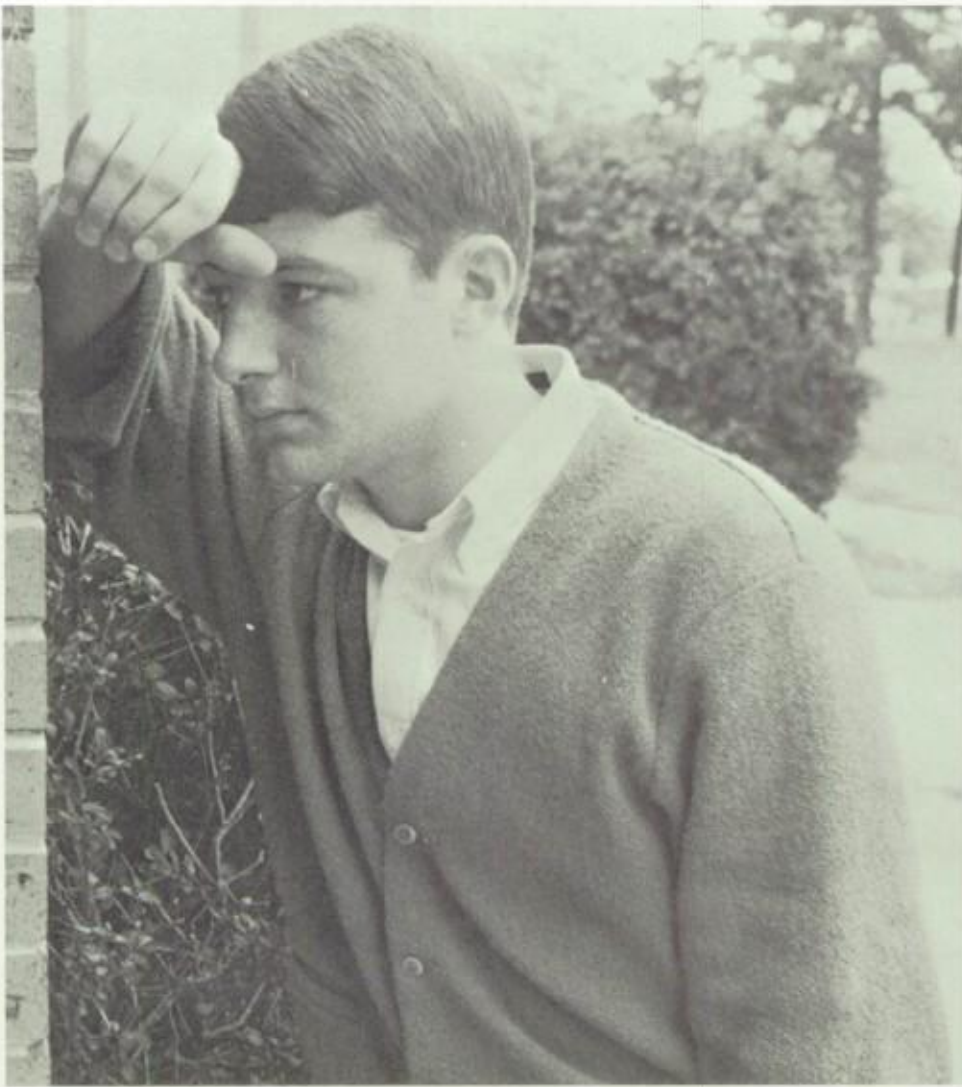

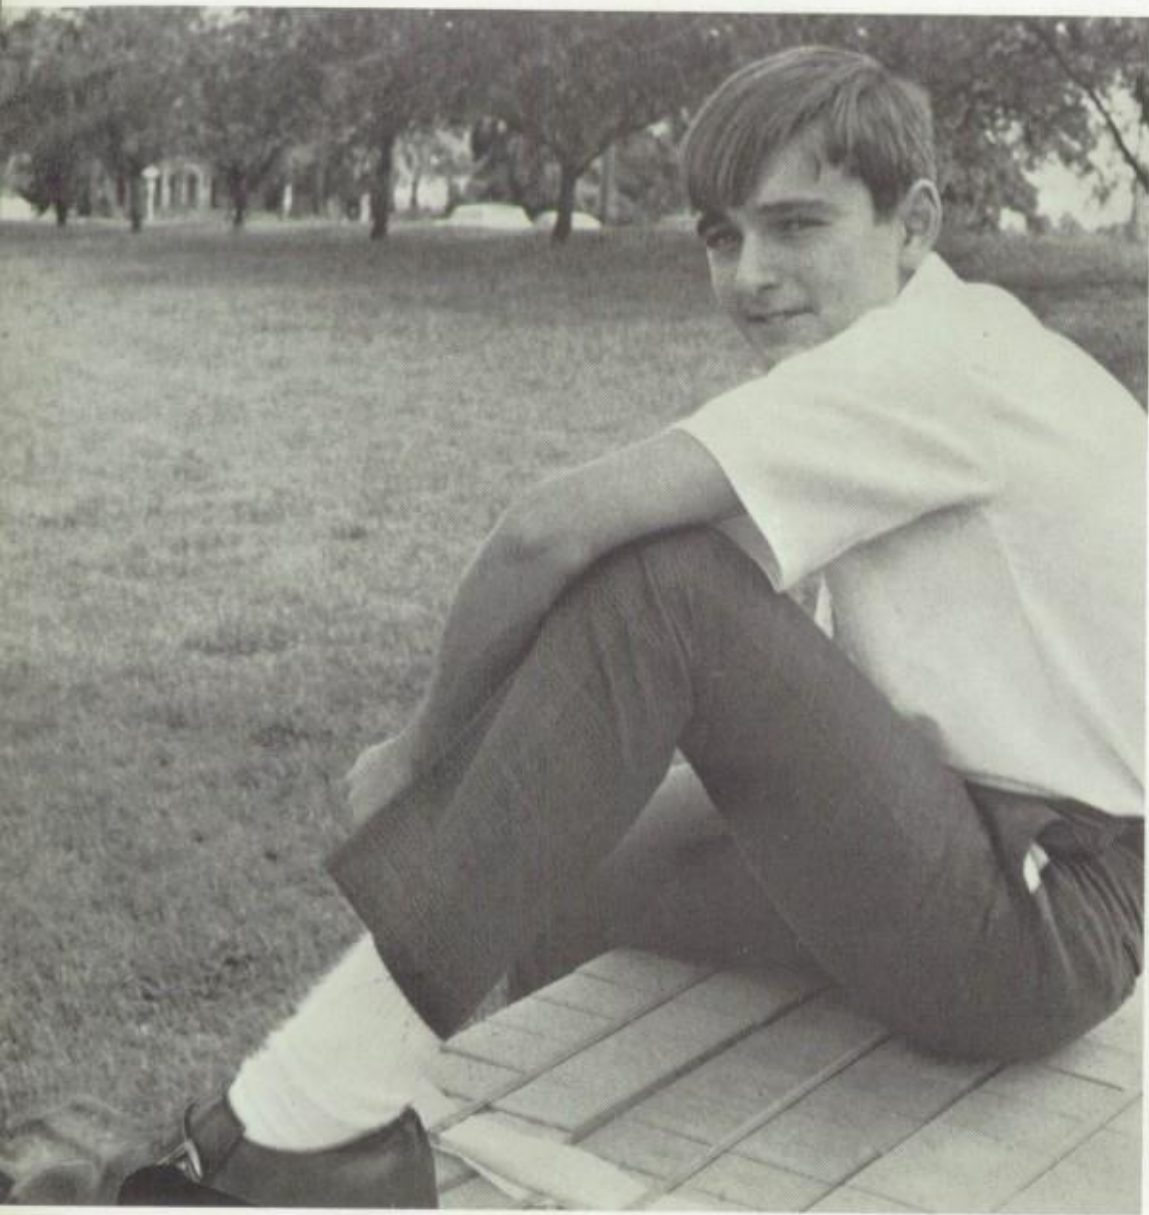

"It is a senior's privilege to graduate and a senior's fate to be separated from all the friends he has known for the last four years."

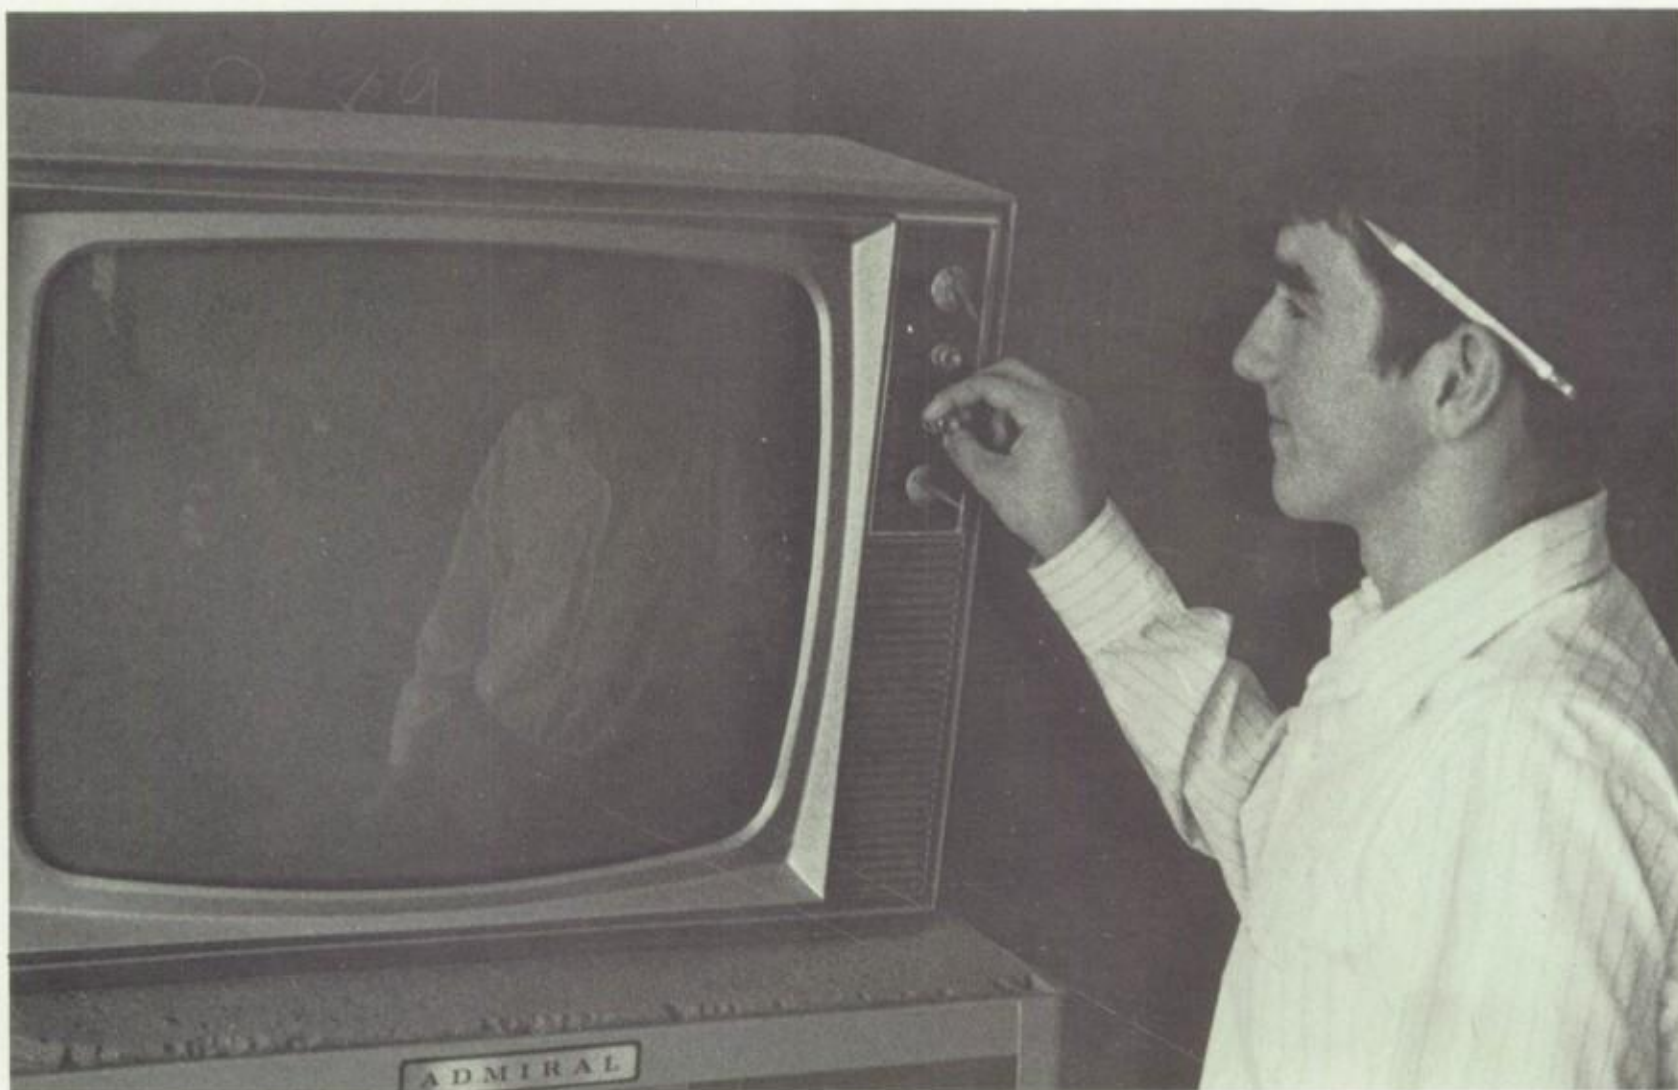

"Being a senior is having others look up to you and feeling good because of it."

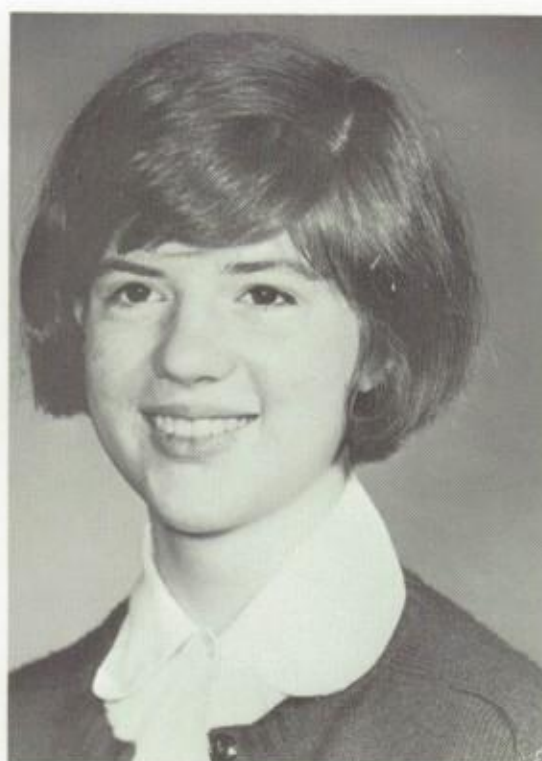

"Being a senior is like being near the end of a long tunnel which I have plodded in for the last eleven years, only to discover that the light up ahead is not sunlight and freedom, but an illumination to thousands of other tunnels. The tunnels appear the same, but behind the darkness of their openings there are countless opportunities and adventures."

Graduation!

One Chapter ends . . . another begins.
And it's not too early — nor too late—to look into your future and accept one of the exciting and challenging opportunities which exist for you in the Greenville area for a career in the health field.

There is an increasing need for specialists, and to learn about the requirements and qualifications, all you need to do is to write for brochures and applications.

Stick around.

One of the best things about growing up in this area is that you never have to leave it. Because its economy is growing by leaps and bounds, producing new job opportunities in both business and agriculture. Too, you'll find technical and higher education facilities second to none. So, come graduation time, stick around. You won't find a better place to live, work and play.

The Times

"... for the present now will soon be the past, for the times they are a changing."

—Bob Dylan

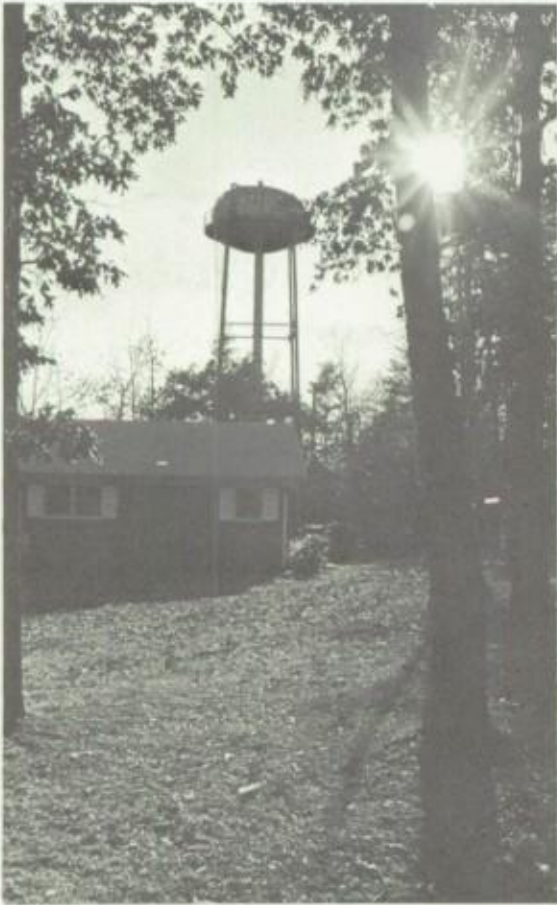

The times have never changed as rapidly as they have in this past decade. Not only have changes been made in world events, but also many have occurred in our town and school. What we wear and what we think are completely different from the generation behind us — and the one to come. Our times are unique. The older generation has been the basis for our ideas and styles, and yet we have broken away to form our own. School has played a large part in the changes we have made. A great deal of its influence has been in the things that have happened after school — those things we have done on our own time. We have talked, and argued, and studied, and played together, and it has brought us closer.

We are caught up in the speed of our times. We are always in a hurry. The age of jets, and fast cars, and time schedules is a part of us. Yet we find time to think about the confusion of living, the Vietnam war, the overpopulation problem, and along with other issues, we think of just where we fit into the times. Again the school comes in to help us make this adjustment to the world outside and around us.

Greer . . . a town made up of faces and structures . . . and the personalities of both.

Wildly colored lights . . . and desperately original signs . . . cheer brick faces of old buildings. A fluorescent light clicks a flash of brightness . . . and reflects a passing car . . . in a store window. The sound of traffic mixes with the hum of conversation . . . and the shuffle of feet; the wind blows . . . memories . . . and hopes.

The Spirit of '70 is all about how we feel as a student body. The ringing of the bell sends a roar of noises, combining laughter, talking, and the stamping of feet. The next bell brings silence, broken only by an occasional announcement or an individual walking through the halls, looking into a classroom for someone to wave to. People are the spirit of Greer High School.

Extra-curricular activities, everyday routine, even studying — all of these are part of the Greer High personality. In this section we have tried to capture the feeling of the Greer High experience.

Twenty years

Coach Phil Clark has been a part of our coaching staff for twenty years now, eighteen of which he has been head coach. In these years our football teams have made one of the most outstanding records in the state.

Coach Clark came to Greer High in 1950 after graduating with honors from Wofford College. He played three sports, was president of the student body, and was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities while a student at Wofford. Bringing these leadership abilities with him, he came to Greer to coach the Yellow Jackets.

During his eighteen years as head coach, our team has won 131 games, lost 63, and tied ten.

This year our team finished with a 9-2 record. Keith Hannon and Alex Dobson made the eighteenth of Coach Clark's players chosen to play in the Shrine Bowl at Charlotte.

The combination of knowledge and dedication of Coach Clark has been a great motivation to the Yellow Jackets. And especially important is the spirit which Coach Clark has made real at Greer High.

It has been boring in French but I enjoyed having
French with you.
You are a great guy
Best of Luck.

Mike,
It's been great knowing you while you've been here. Good luck in the future!

Jeresa

Dear Mike -
it has been nice knowing you for the past few months

It's been fun
going to school with you in the time I have known you
Lots of luck

It's been fun
riding the same bus this year. This has been a great year for me and I only have one more to go
